GRANGE NEWS

Members of Oregon Trail Grange met Thursday evening, July 3, in regular session with Overseer Harold Kurtz acting as master in the absence of Don Somers.

Plans were discussed for an entry in the rodeo parade and also for a booth at Malheur county fair in August. Acting Master Kurtz appointed Mrs. Frank Holub as chairman with Mrs. Eric Boenig as assistant to formulate and carry out plans for the booth. All grange members were urged to contribute ideas to this yearly project.

The lecturer's program included readings on etiquette of the flag. A game provided by the lecturer brought out some hidden acting ability of various members who were to demonstrate what they would do if given a broom, bubble gum, milk bucket, or scissors.

Refreshments were served to 18 members and two guests by the Ira Price and Frank Holub couples.

Next regular meeting will be Thursday, July 17, beginning at 8:30 p.m. All members are urged to attend.
