

MR. AND MRS. DEAN PETERSON

Miss Anna Anderson became the bride of Dean Peterson during a 7 o'clock evening ceremony on June 27, 1969 at the Nyssa LDS church. The double-ring rites were performed by Bishop Reed Ray before a setting of white gladioli and orange daisy mums in the presence of 60 invited guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Anderson, Bishop and Mrs. Glen Peterson, all of Nyssa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of silk organza over taffeta, fashioned with lace yoke, long sleeves and scalloped neckline. An outstanding feature of the dress was a full-length train of silk organza with scalloped lace and sequin overlay. The A-line skirt was accented with lace overlays which matched the train. Her bouquet was of white daisy mums and orange roses.

Miss Junia Kay Mitchell was maid of honor while bridesmaids were DeeAnn Peterson, sister of the bridegroom, Barbara Orr and Cheryl Wilson. All wore identical gowns fashioned from mint green crepe.

Serving as best man was Doug Patterson and ushers were Jim Anderson, brother of the bride, Boyd Esplin and Clinton Robbins. Phillip Ray Davis, the bride's cousin, was ringbearer. Soloist was Mrs. Farrell Peterson, sister-in-law of the bridegroom accompanied by Mrs. Clinton Robbins, his sister.

A reception honoring the couple was held in the church cultural hall. The cake was made and served by Mrs. Eugene Davis, aunt of the bride and punch was poured by Mrs. Larry Vaughn, the bridegroom's sister.

The bride was graduated from Nyssa high school and attended Eastern Oregon college at La Grande for one year. Her husband is also a NHS graduate and attended Treasure Valley Community college for one year before going on a mission to northern India for the LDS church. He is presently employed as fresh-pack foreman at Ore-Ida Foods, Inc., at Ontario where the newlyweds plan to make their home.

For their wedding trip to McCall, the bride wore a dress of floral print with white accessories.

Out-of-area guests included Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Davis and family, Mrs. Larry Vaughn and family, all of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Walt Miller of Twin Falls; Miss Barbara Orr of Stanfield, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Dally of Burley, Ida.
