

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES BARNHART

Miss Carol Ann McCormick and Charles T. Barnhart exchanged wedding vows during a 4 o'clock garden ceremony on the afternoon of June 14, 1969 at the bride's home. The double-ring rites, witnessed by 65 guests, were performed by the bridegroom's father, the Rev. Dempsey Barnhart of Community Bible church of Fargo. The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McCormick of Adrian, the Rev. and Mrs. Barnhart of Wilder.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of white lace over taffeta and carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Mary Barnhart, the bridegroom's sister, attended as bridesmaid and wore a gown of white lace over pale green satin with white carnation corsage. Serving as best man for his brother, was Paul Barnhart while ushers were Brian and Ronald McCormick, the bride's brothers.

Launa Kay Ward, wearing a dress and veil identical to that of the bride, was flower girl. Ringbearer was Mark Barnhart, nephew of the bridegroom.

Vocal selections were presented by Earnie Lewis with musical accompaniment by Mrs. Ned Denman. Guests were registered by Miss Faye Parvin and Miss Margy Parvin assisted with opening gifts.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McCormick wore a beige knit dress and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a blue dress of bonded lace. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Mrs. Glenn Ward and Mrs. Ralph Craig were in charge of the reception which followed the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Barnhart was graduated from Adrian high school and attended Treasure Valley Community college. Her husband attended school at Sandpoint, Ida., and is now employed in logging operations at Careywood, Ida.

The bride chose a white linen suit with grey print blouse for her wedding trip to Yellowstone park, where the newlyweds traveled before going to Careywood to establish their home.
