

MR. AND MRS. ROY EUGENE SUTTON

Miss La Vora Smith and Roy Eugene Sutton were united in marriage on Friday evening, June 27, 1969 in the LDS Owyhee ward church. Performing the double-ring ceremony was Bishop Farrell Peterson. Mrs. Peterson was vocalist and was accompanied by her daughter, Vicki.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sutton of Gooding, Idaho.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white crepe. Her elbow-length veil was secured to a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones, with her bouquet fashioned from three orchids, surrounded by yellow carnations.

Mary Lee Sutton, the groom's sister, attended as bridesmaid. She wore a street-length dress of orange crepe. Attending as flower girl was Letia Patterson, the bride's niece, dressed in a light-orange frock. Serving as best man was Roddy Adams of Gooding, with Kenney Harris as ring-bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Smith chose a dress of blue lace, while the bridegroom's mother was attired in a lavender and white ensemble. Each wore a corsage of white carnations and yellow roses.

The new Mrs. Sutton was graduated in 1960 from Adrian high school, attended Peacock Beauty school in Nampa the following year and in 1968 worked as a licensed practical nurse at a Caldwell hospital. She is presently employed at the Blakely nursing home in the Idaho city.

After a wedding trip to the west coast, the newlyweds are now residing in Caldwell where the bridegroom is working for Kit Manufacturing company.

An intelligent man is one who understands what he doesn't know.
