

THUNDEREGG STORY CORRECTIONS

THE PICTURESQUE ROCK, shown in last week's issue of the Journal, is not from the collection of Adolph Schroeder, but belongs to Dr. John E. Long. The colorful specimen was on display again this year at the 'rock and hobby' exhibit. General chairman of Thunderegg Days, this year and last, was 'Wayne' Moncur - not 'Mark.' Photo on the right also appeared in the July 31 issue as Wayne was registering out-of-area visitors in Nyssa south park. Another 'goof' in the story was omission of the name of David Krause from the list of Thunderegg Days committee members. The errors can be shared equally by a member of the Journal staff and others providing information. Apologies go to all parties involved. This is once again, proof that "to err is human!"
