Former Nyssa Youth

Injured In Accident

A former Nyssa youth, Clayton M. Morgan, 18, of Boise was injured Tuesday evening in a car-motorcycle collision at the intersection of Orchard and Emerald avenues in the Idaho capital city. He is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Clayton C. Morgan, and a grandson of Nyssan Mrs. Jessie Morgan.

Boise police officers reported that the youth suffered head cuts and was taken to St. Luke's hospital where his condition was listed as satisfactory early Wednesday morning.

Morgan was going north on Orchard when his cycle collided with a southbound auto driven by LaVerna M. Heath of Boise. Officers reported that Mrs. Heath was making a left turn at the time of the mishap. She was issued a ticket for failing to yield right-of-way.

Plane Crashes Near Adrian

Dennis (Duck) Tomjack walked away from his plane with only small scratches to his head, minutes before it burst into flame. When leaving the runway, near Adrian, he started losing altitude and struck a haystack belonging to Wesley Walker.

The aircraft, a spray-dusting plane, and the hay stack both burst into flame and were reported to be a total loss. This is the eighth dusting plane to go down in this area this summer. But according to reports received at the Journal, Tomjack is still in business.
