

NU ACRES HAPPENINGS

BY MARGARET EVANS PHONE 674-2074

NU ACRES — Monty Rush of Oakridge, Ore., and Dale Pattee were united in marriage Aug. 9 at the Community hall. Pattee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pattee of Nu Acres. The couple will make their new home at Westfir, Ore., where they both are employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pattee are settled in their new home at Fort Lee, Va., according to word received by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pattee.

The new restrooms are almost completed in the Community hall. The committee wishes to thank all who helped with the project. Special thanks goes to the Farmers' Co-op Ditch Co. and the Ontario Ready to Pour Concrete Co. for the use of their machinery and gravel.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Otto and four children of McCall spent August 10 with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Bryan.

Mrs. Bryan spent the evening of August 7 at Caldwell Memorial hospital helping to care for her brother, Bill Wise. He is reported to be improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Haley of Albany, Ore., spent a recent weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson. They also visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Haley, of Gaway. On the evening of Aug. 10, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Petross of New Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Kaye Wilson and family of Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Don Haley and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Haley enjoyed a picnic at the Woodrow Wilson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson returned from a recent vacation. They visited relatives at Madras, Albany, and Portland, and later went on a trip down the Oregon coast. Mr. and Mrs. Coy Petross of New Plymouth took care of their home while they were gone.

AROCK NEWS

CHARLOTTE ELWOOD

AROCK — It won't be long until the W. W. Jones school bell will ring, and Arock is still minus one teacher. Mrs. Emily Daniel, who had accepted the post to teach fifth and sixth grade students, recently resigned.

Interested, qualified patrons are asked to contact Mrs. Hazel Fretwell, clerk of Malheur county school district 81, Jordan Valley. Members of the board met recently to swear in new members. They are Mrs. Fred Biswell and Mrs. Harry Stoddard III.

The group discussed preliminaries in getting the school plant ready, and report the purchase of a new bus. The campus will have a new community built concrete play area and all supplies have been purchased. School officials say they will pay $10 a day to area residents who are willing to help lay the concrete slab. This will be a fall project, slated to begin when the summer farm work is completed.

GEM CLUB MEETING

Treasure Valley Rock and Gem club members will hold an August 15 picnic at the Maurice Corey home. They plan to start eating at 7 p.m.
