MR. AND MRS. VANCE WOOLLEY

In a July 10, 1969 wedding ceremony at the Idaho Falls LDS temple, Miss Marie Durfee became the bride of Vance Ezra Woolley, with President Arive performing the double-ring rites.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Durfee of route 2, Nyssa; Mr. and Mrs. Keith E. Woolley of Othello, Wash.

A reception was held the following evening at the Owyhee ward LDS church. The bride was attired in a floor-length, lace-covered gown of white satin crepe, with satin panel inset and matching bow. Her floor length veil of illusion was held by a matching petal shaped tiara, trimmed with jewels; and she carried a white orchid and yellow-rose corsage.

Margie Durfee attended her sister as maid of honor, while bridesmaids were Mrs. Terry Haile of Salt Lake City, Vicki Peterson and Cindy Shy of Nyssa. They wore dresses of green and yellow crepe and carried chrysanthemum bouquets. Linda Durfee, also wearing a green crepe frock, was flower girl.

Cliff Woolley served as best man for his brother, while ushers were Kevin Tracy, Scott Woolley, another brother; and Douglas Garner the bridegroom's uncle.

Bishop Farrell Peterson served as master of ceremonies for the reception program, which included a vocal duet by Margie Durfee and Diane Haney, accompanied by Elaine Berrett.

A musical reading, written especially for the occasion, was given by Rodger Garner, with a vocal duet by Jay and Alta Gibson. They were all accompanied by Vicki Peterson. Mrs. Mark (June) Hartley presented a vocal solo, accompanied by Merla Ashby.

A three-tier cake with yellow bells, made by the bride's great-aunt, Ursula Orr, graced the refreshment table. Assisting with serving, care of gifts and guest registration were Aizina Salter, Ruth Draper, Jean Wood, Diane Shy, Janet Montgomery, Kathy Nelson, Selma Simpson, Mrs. Robert Munn, Mrs. Richard Orchard, Mrs. Henry Durfee and Eva Marie Aston.

Among out-of-area guests were the bride's grandparents,
