NEWS FROM AROCK
BY STUDENTS OF W. W. JONES SCHOOL

AROCK—After waiting a period of two years, the W.W. Jones school has received a new 1969 'Chevy' bus. Students were surprised at its square shape which is quite different from the old bus. They say that they are thoroughly enjoying the padded seats.

Catholic and Protestant release classes started Sept. 17 and all students will attend. Teachers for the Protestant classes are Charlotte Elwood, first, second and third grade pupils; Rose King, fifth and sixth; Hazel Fretwell, seventh and eighth grades.

Catholic instructors are Isabel Eiguren, Lorraine Henry, Lucille Montgomery, and Barbara Caywood.

Mrs. Henry will teach the first and second grade students; Mrs. Eiguren and Mrs. Montgomery fifth and sixth; Mrs. Caywood seventh and eighth grade.

New neighbors is the community are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Prater and family of Nampa. Prater is employed on the Fred Eiguren ranch and his son, Terry is attending high school at Jordan Valley.

Lee Westmoreland was in Arock Sept. 17 to visit the George Dines family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spears recently came from California to their ranch near Rome to see about the hay crop. They left Sept. 17 for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Elwood of Caldwell; their children, Jamie Ann and Wesley visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elwood, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Elwood and Rhonda. Other visitors were Mrs. Larry Elwood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis O. Christensen of Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Grenke have their niece, Jamie Baltzor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baltzor, staying with them while her parents are on vacation.

Hazel Zimmerman was recently bitten by her father-in-law's dog while trying to free him from a trap. She was taken to a doctor and remained under his care for several days.

Early Saturday morning, Sept. 20 a truck hit a bull, belonging to Lee Westmoreland. The accident happened at the bottom of Rome hill. The driver said he didn't see the cattle and that the bull jumped in front of the truck before he could stop the vehicle. The mishap caused the fan to penetrate the radiator.
