LT/J.G. AND MRS. DAVID R. LOONEY

Miss Nina Ruth McCoy became the bride of Lt/JG David Robert Looney in a double-ring ceremony performed at 8 p.m. August 8, 1969 in the Wesley United Methodist church in Honolulu, Hawaii. The ceremony was solemnized in the presence of 60 close friends by the Rev. Robert B. Montgomery.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Vaiao J. Alailima, high titled chief of Western Samoa, was attired in a white princess style floor-length gown, fashioned with wide scalloped lace at high neck and cuffs on long sleeves. Her veil was shoulder length tulle netting. She carried a bouquet of three large white orchids surrounded by cascading delphinium orchids.

Miss Deanna Kastler, Honolulu, was maid of honor. Her gown was princess style, salmon color with long belled sleeves, trimmed in salmon and gold braid. She carried a French style bouquet with white carnations and salmon roses.

Serving as best man was Lt/JG H. Winfield Padgett and usher was CWO2 Neilson E. Eney. All men wore Navy white dress uniforms.

Soloist was Mrs. Michael McAlunan accompanied by Mrs. Noboru Fujii.

The church was decorated with candlelight, white aisle cloth, pew streamers and bows. Altar flowers were white gladioli, mums and salmon roses.

A reception honoring the couple was held in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Montgomery, given by members of Wesley United Methodist church. A three-tiered white wedding cake, surrounded with four tall candles accented with plumeria blossoms was served by Miss Deanna Kastler. Assisting at the punch bowl were Miss Francis Taylor and Mrs. Frank Butterworth.

The bride graduated from Cottage Grove high school and the University of Oregon. She also attended Oregon State university of Hawaii. She is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta Scholastic Honorary, Mortar Board and Senior Womens Honorary. Until her marriage, the new Mrs. Looney was a teacher in Hawaii.

The bride returned August 1 from Western Samoa where she had been part of an educational work team sponsored by the Methodist church. Mr. Alailima, her wedding escort accompanied the group to Samoa as leader of the team. The bride wore a silver Western Samoan five cent piece in her shoe for good luck. Several of the guests were members of the work team who wore traditional Samoan dress, as did Mrs. Alailima.

The groom graduated from Adrian high school and the University of Oregon with a B A degree in history. He recently returned from a tour of duty in the Western Pacific with the USS Davidson.

The ceremony was intimate, with the bride and groom reading to each other from Song of Solomon and the congregation taking part in responsive reading of I Corinthians 13. The Rev. Montgomery then used the Testament readings as a basis for a personalized sermonette before the actual wedding ceremony.

Following a wedding trip to Laie, Hawaii and various Oregon scenic sports the couple will make their home in San Diego, new home port for Lt/JG Looney who is operations officer with USS Stone County.

A reception, honoring the newlyweds, was held Tuesday evening, Sept. 16, 1969 at the Presbyterian church in Adrian. In charge of the refreshment table was Mrs. Carl Lee Hill, who was assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Price, Mrs. Marge Looney and Mrs. Carolyn Rossbach. Mrs. Glen Palmer was in charge of the gift table, with Mrs. Clifford Looney registering the guests. Mrs. Jake Borge and Mrs. Robert Long were members of the committee in charge of arrangements.
