

MERILDEAN ROBBINS, BUS SUPERVISOR AT THE NYSSA Schools, is shown with the new school bus that he drove back recently from the Superior factory in Lima, Ohio. The bus is mounted on a Ford chassis purchased from Gentry Ford. This bus joins the fleet of 10 buses under Robbins' care that hauls about 45 percent of the Nyssa students to school. The school board has replaced one bus in each of the past several years, helping to insure safe, dependable and economical transportation each day to over 600 youngsters.
