THE WHITE HOUSE

Thanksgiving Day 1969

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

On October 3, 1863, President Abraham Lincoln invited his fellow citizens to "set apart and observe the last Thursday of November next as a day of Thanksgiving..."

Today, despite our material wealth and well-being, Americans face complex problems unknown before in our nation's history.

This year, let us especially seek to rekindle in our respective hearts and minds the spirit of our first settlers who valued freedom above all else...

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD NIXON, President of the United States of America, in consonance with Section 6103 of Title 5 of the United States Code...

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this twelfth day of November, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred sixty-nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred ninety-fourth.

RICHARD NIXON

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sweaney, Mrs. Pat Sweaney and Bill of Caldwell, were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Tom Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sallee and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sallee plan to spend Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Sheldon in Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sager traveled through Oregon, Washington, and Idaho on honey business. They left Nov. 20 and returned Nov. 23.

Second Ward Plans Bazaar And Dinner

The Nyssa 2nd Ward Relief Society Bazaar is planned for Friday, December 5 at the Nyssa Stake House.

Dinner will be served from 6 to 8 p.m., and will feature home made chicken and noodles, mashed potatoes, sloppy joes, salads, rolls, pie ala-mode, and cake.

There will be a Teen booth, fish pond, a Swami, bread and baked items, novelties, fancy work, goodies of all kinds, games and a cake walk.

THANKSGIVING

We number our many treasures Garnered in an endless store. As a miser counts his money, We count them "o'er and o'er."

There's the golden gleam of sunshine As it sparkles upon the dew. For the freshness of the morning, How it gives us hopes anew.

There's the beauty of the woodland With it's touch of russet and brown. How it glistens o'er the landscape When the leaves come tumbling down.

For the aching pain of sorrow Oh, it keeps us near the cross. Our Lord knows why it's given, He sustains us in our loss.

For our glorious land of plenty Help us now to know its worth. And always keep our flag untrampled, Freedom's pledge to all the Earth.

For the aching pain of sorrow Oh, it keeps us near the cross. Our Lord knows why it's given, He sustains us in our loss.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor: Recently I've sent the enclosed letter to folks I could identify as probably interested.

This letter is to offer an opportunity for your child. Since the Mary Kay School recently received additional funds, we want to invite more handicapped children to attend.

SPECIAL EDUCATION GIVEN EMPHASIS IN NYSSA SCHOOLS

An attempt is being made in the Nyssa Schools to meet the individual needs of those children who are older and still need remedial teaching, according to Lloyd Dibble, Special Education teacher.

There are now twelve children in the special class at Arcadia under Mrs. Lucille Cary. As these children grow and reach an age where a more mature environment is needed, they are moved to the special class in the Jr. High building.

Their school day is scheduled so that where ever possible they can intergrate with the regular Junior High School.

100TH ANNIVERSARY BALL TO BE HELD AT NYSSA STAKE

The Nyssa Stake Centennial Ball will be held Friday, November 28, at the Nyssa Stake House. The semi-formal dance is held in honor of the Young Women's Mutual Improvement Association's 100th anniversary.

The dance will start at 8:30 p.m., and a floor show at intermission will feature dances of the past.

Christian Women Slate Meeting

Christian Women's club will meet Wednesday, December 3, at the La Paloma cafe, at 1:00 p.m. for their monthly luncheon.

Special music will be presented by Mark Moncur, Nyssa vocalist, and Kimi Rice of New Plymouth will present an "Origami," a Japanese art of entertaining children.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the luncheons and reservations may be made by calling 889-6538.

ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH GUILD HELD AN OPEN HOUSE SUNDAY AFTERNOON IN THE CHURCH BASEMENT HONORING REV. TOM WINKLER, WHO WAS ORDAINED INTO THE DIACONATE AT SERVICES HELD IN BURNS THE PREVIOUS SUNDAY.

Clean Ovens Prevents Fire

Looking forward to that traditional Thanksgiving dinner? The fire chief probably has the same idea, reminds the Insurance Information Institute.

To give him something to be thankful for, and at the same time make sure that you have a happy Thanksgiving, be sure your oven is clean and free of grease before you start cooking the turkey.

A greasy oven is a fire hazard that could result not only in a very crisp bird, but a serious fire in your home as well.

The I. I. I. suggests turning off the heat and leaving the oven door closed until the fire is out. If necessary, call the fire department.

ROSSBACH-HALE UNITED OCT. 28

Carolyn Rossbach was married to Frank Hale of Seattle, Wash., on October 28. She is the daughter of Mrs. Tina Schiemer.

BOY SCOUT ACTIVITIES

A new Cub Scout Pack was formed Nov. 19, with nine boys joining. The meeting was held at Nyssa High School.

The next meeting will be December 4 at 7 p.m. at the Park Avenue Baptist Church.

The sponsors would like to thank Pat Savage and Julia Longoria, Den Mothers; L.D. Walburn, Assistant Cub Master; Ella Walburn, Committee member; and adult scouters from Pack 450 for helping.

Attending Roundtable in Ontario Nov. 20 at the May Roberts School were Bob Franklin, Roundtable and Committee Chairman; L.D. Walburn, Assistant Cubmaster; Pat Savage, Den Mother and Den Leaders Coach; Alberta Morrow, Den Mother and Ella Walburn, Committee member.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Sounders and family of Meridian and Mrs. Marvin Wilson of Burns were Nov. 20 dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Flinders.

OBITUARIES

ROSEL H. HUNTER DARLENE D. TALBOT

Rosel H. Hunter, 60, a former Nyssa high school teacher, died November 22 at Cave Junction, Ore.

Mr. Hunter was born Oct. 13, 1909. He married Hazel Marie Johnson, and the couple resided in the Nyssa area for a number of years before moving to Cave Junction.

He taught agriculture and art at Nyssa High School and at one time worked for the Farmer's Home Administration. He also was active in 4-H work and was the director of the Payette Creamery for a time.

He was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

He is survived by his wife, Hazel, Cave Junction; four sons, Rosel D. Hunter, Portland, John G. Hunter, Astoria, Ore., Dwight Kay Hunter, Portland, and Marshall Lee Hunter, Seattle; four daughters, Belta Burgess, California, Jolene Wuest, Seattle, Ellen Marie Bingham, and Lenore Hunter, both of Idaho, and 29 grandchildren.

Services were conducted at 2 p.m. November 24 at the LDS Church at Grants Pass, Ore.

Mrs. Darlene Talbot (Darlene Duniway) succumbed November 18, at her home in Boise. Mrs. Talbot was the daughter of former Nyssans, Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Duniway.

Survivors include her husband, Marion F. Talbot, Boise, Mass., and Nate Talbot, Boise and a daughter Mrs. Nadine Chaffin, Boise. Other survivors include three brothers, Houston Duniway, Max Duniway and Jack Duniway. A brother Carl Duniway was killed during World War II.

Private family services were conducted under the direction of the Alden-Waggoner Chapel.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. George Hust and her aunt, Mrs. B.B. Houston traveled to Boise Nov. 16. They flew by jet plane to visit another aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Bailar, at Eugene. Mrs. Hust also visited Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hust at Junction City, Ore. She returned to Boise Nov. 21 where she spent the night with her grandmother, Minnie White. Mr. Hust, Carla and Georgia drove to Boise Saturday to get Mrs. Hust.

How lovely is they dwelling place.—(Psalms 84:1).

Our immediate environment is an extension of ourselves. We help create it. If there is inharmony in the home, office or plant, we should do something about it.
