Brownie's Cafe & Lounge

JUST IN TIME FOR CHRISTMAS—After a seven-year gap, a living symbol of Oregon's timber industry and the world's most popular Christmas tree is back on the state Capitol grounds. Blitz-Weinhard Company, a pioneer Oregon brewery, financed the Douglas-fir transplant so Capitol visitors could have an easy view of the state's official tree. A stand of Douglas-firs was destroyed by the 1962 Columbus Day storm.

Russell Myrick arrived home Dec. 19 to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Myrick.
