

Frates—Sells Marriage Solemnized

Vows were exchanged July 25, between Karen Louise Frates and David Eugene Sells at the Fruitland Church of the Brethren. Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Earl Traugher. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Frates of Fruitland and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sells of Parma.

Church decorations for the double ring ceremony were in white and blue with blue mist carnations, white mums and gladiolus. Providing the traditional wedding music was Mrs. Kirk Olson, soloist, and Mrs. Glen Olson at the organ.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin peau de soie with an empire waistline. Long bouffant sleeves were gathered at the wrist. The finger tip veil was held by a flowered headpiece trimmed with seed pearls. The gown was made by the bride's great aunt, Nellie Dawson.

She carried a handkerchief of Battenberg lace that belonged to her great grandmother. Her bouquet consisted of a cascade of white gladiolus and carnations with a turquoise satin ribbon.

Serving as maid of honor was the bride's sister, Diane Frates. She wore a turquoise satin gown with empire waistline and puffed sleeves. She carried a nosegay of blue mist carnations and white rosebuds. Bridesmaid was Sandi Sasaki wearing an identical gown to the maid of honor and a nosegay of blue carnations and white rosebuds. Tammy O'dell was flower girl and wore a floorlength turquoise frock. She carried a basket of blue and white mist carnations with blue ribbons.

Best man was Terry Sells, brother of the groom. Ushers were Tom and John Sells, also brothers of the bridegroom, and Steve Schultze. Candlelighters were Larry Arnaui and Debbie Frates, the bride's sister, who wore a short turquoise gown.

Timmy Walker was the ring-bearer.

A reception followed the ceremony and was held in the church. Seated at the guest book was Shirley Dressen. Cutting and serving the wedding cake were Mrs. Kenneth Fosberg and Mrs. Leonard Phillips, aunts of the bride. Pouring coffee and punch were Mrs. Albert Frates Jr., aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Charles Jeffries. Assisting at the gift table were Mrs. James Franklin, the bridegroom's sister-in-law.

Also assisting at the reception were Lori Walker, cousin of the bride and Dorothy and Joyce Franklin, cousins of the bridegroom.

The newlyweds are making their first home in Boise, where he is employed with the Idaho First National Bank. He is a 1969 graduate of Parma High School and the bride is a 1969 graduate of Fruitland High School.
