According to Mrs. Max (Norma) Urry, the following books are now available at the local library.

ADULT NON FICTION

"I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings" - Maya Angelou - This volume is superbly told, with the poet's gift for language and observation. It is the story of growing up of a Southern black girl.
 "Up the Organization" - Robert Townsend - How to stop the corporation from stifling people and strangling profits.
 "Dolls and Doll-Making" - Mary Benbow - Two other authors have pooled their knowledge to produce a complete guide to a very satisfying pastime.

"Fly-Tying" - Helen Shaw - The materials, tools, and techniques to fly-tying.
 "Modern Fly Craft" - James H. Hyndman - A book of instruction to teach the amateur how to master the art of fly-tying.
 "Poems that Live Forever" - Hazel Felleman - This book is the chronicle, public and private, of the life of Bert Lehr, the last of the great clowns.
 "As I Live and Breathe" - Malcolm Boyd - Malcolm Boyd has lived an extraordinary life-up-to now and has written this book of rare distinction and honesty about it.
 "Alaska" - Norma Spring - An illustrated guide to the amazing variety of year-round adventure.
 "I Didn't Come Here to Argue" - Peg Bracken - Here are a wonderful variety and startling range of original observations, graced with lyric prose, laced with laughter, and sparkled with surprises.
 "Climate, Man and History" - Robert Claiborne - The story of how climate has helped shape human destiny is an intriguing puzzle composed of many oddly shaped pieces.
 "Allegiances" - William Stafford - New poems by the author, winner of the National Book Award for Poetry in 1953.
 "Japanese One-Pot Cookery" - Masaru Dpi - Companion to "Cook Japanese" vividly illustrated by colorful photographs.
 "The Motorboatman's Bible" - Harvey Garrett Smith - A complete guide to buying, maintaining, and sailing sail boats.
 "The Hunter's Bible" - W.K. Merrill - An illustrated book of advice for the outdoor sportsman.
 "Rapid Reading Made Simple" - John Waldman - Comprehensive course for selfstudy and review.
