

Karen Sue Saito Becomes Bride of Daniel Shishido

On Saturday, September 5, 1970, at 4 p.m., Karen Sue Saito became the bride of Daniel M. Shishido at the Community Methodist Church in Ontario. The ceremony was solemnized in the presence of 170 guests by the Rev. George Uyemura.

The altar was graced with large baskets of mint green and yellow gladioli, orange anthuriums imported from Hawaii and tall candleabras.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Kayno Saito of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Isamu Shishido of Honolulu, Hawaii.

The bride given in marriage by her father was attired in a floor-length Chantilly lace gown fashioned with an empire waist, A-line skirt and detached chapel length train. It featured a scoop neckline edged with scalloped lace and long cavalier sleeves with deep cuffs. Her elbow length veil of illusion was caught to a bandeau of lace flower petals, fashioned by Mrs. Hiro Kido. Her cascading bridal bouquet was of stephanotis and ribbons, centered with two large Japette orchids and ribbon streamers.

Maid of honor was Miss Ellen Saito, sister of the bride. She wore a sleeveless empire style floor-length gown of yellow crystal and a headpiece identical to that of the bride. She carried a nosegay of yellow pom poms, stephanotis and Hawaiian Delight roses.

Bridesmaids were Jan Saito, sister of the bride and Barbara Gunderson of San Francisco. Candlelighters were Paula and Lori Saito, cousins of the bride. All wore gowns fashioned identical to that of the maid of honor but of mint green crystal.

Flower girls were Gigi Saito, cousin of the bride and Naela

Shishido, niece of the groom. Their gowns were floor-length yellow crystal accented with lace and they wore yellow ribbon headpieces. All attendants carried nosegays of yellow pom poms, stephanotis and Hawaiian Delight roses.

Mrs. Dale Hicks of Ontario was organist and played the traditional wedding music. She also accompanied Mrs. Bob Kido who sang, "More", "Walk Hand in Hand", and "The Wedding Prayer."

Serving as best man was Reid Saito, brother of the bride. Ushers were Dr. Douglas Kato of Portland and Owen Kuribayashi of Pullman. The ring-bearer was Master Matthew Saito, cousin of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Saito chose a dress of pink silk shantung trimmed at neck and sleeves with cotton Venise lace. She wore a matching hat and silver accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a silk dress of mint green with matching hat and shoes and had white gloves and purse. Their corsages were Cattleya orchids.

Grandmother's of the bride, Mrs. Maki Saito, wore a two-piece lavender outfit with matching hat, white gloves and black accessories. Mrs. Sumiyo Matsui was attired in a two piece suit of turquoise with matching hat and bone accessories. Their corsages were purple Cymbidium orchids.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the church social hall. In charge of the decorating was Mrs. Tom Nishitani assisted by Mrs. Sony Takami.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Larry Saito, Mrs. George Saito, Mrs. Henry Kato, Miss Saye Matsui, Mrs. Masuo Kuribayashi, and Mrs. Harry Matsui, all aunts of the bride. Attending the guest book were Jeanine Saito and Sonia Saito, cousins of the bride. Pam Saito and Setsy Sadamoto were at the gift table.

The bride is employed as a secretary at C.T.A. Insurance Co. and the groom is a Loan Officer of Croker Citizens Bank of California in San Francisco. Following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe the couple are at home in San Francisco.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Isamu Shishido, Honolulu, Hawaii; Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Shishido, San Diego, Calif.; Shishido, Dale and Naela, San Ramon; Miss Edith Seto, Palo Alto; Miss Saye Matsui, Los Angeles; Mr. Dee Garrett, San Francisco; Miss Sonia Bronson, San Francisco; Miss Debra Howard, Vallejo; Miss Stetsy Sadamoto, Garden Grove; Ted Wise, Woodland Hills, all of California. Those from the state of Washington included: Mrs. Sumiyo Matsui, Chuck Matsui, Mrs. Masuo Kuribayashi and family, Mrs. Miyo Shintaku all of Wapato. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kikuchi, Moses Lake, Mr. and Mrs. George Muaki, Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sugihara, Roy, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kato and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kato and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Franklin and Miss Sara Shiochi, all of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Matsui of Caldwell.

Patricia Anderson, David Sumpter Exchange Vows

Patricia Diane Anderson and David Joe Sumpter exchanged marriage vows on September 19, 1970, in the presence of a small group of relatives and friends.

The 7:30 p.m. ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Lowe at Bethel Chapel in Boise. The altar was decorated with floral arrangements of pink roses. Providing the traditional wedding music was organist Mrs. Robert Lowe.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Anderson of Boise and Mr. and Mrs. E.L. Sumpter of Nyssa.

The bride wore a street-length white brocade gown and carried one long stemmed pink rose on a white Bible.

Matron of honor was Mrs. L.B. Anderson and bridesmaid was Miss Teresa L. Hunt. They wore street-length dresses and pink rose corsages.

Performing the best man duties was C. Alan Powers while usher was R.G. Sumpter.

The bride's mother wore a blue knit dress and the groom's mother chose a blue bonded dress. They had identical corsages of white gladioli.

At the reception following the ceremony in the Chapel recreation room a three tiered white wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom was served. Assisting with the serving were Mmes. Elmo Chadd, R.V. Marcum and R.G. Sumpter.

The bride attended Borah High School and graduated in 1968. The groom was graduated from Nyssa High School in 1966, attended TVCC, and completed requirements at Oregon State University in 1970. He is presently employed at the State Department of Agriculture.

The young couple are making their home at Rt. 1, Nyssa, Oregon.

Stunz' Enjoy Weekend Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Stunz, accompanied by Mrs. Stunz' mother, Mrs. Louise House, of Boise, enjoyed a weekend trip. From Boise, they drove on to Loman, then to Grandjean Lodge and on to Stanley. Mrs. Stunz said the new highway from Stanley was an exceptionally good and a beautiful highway. They especially enjoyed the drive at this time of year when all of the foliage was in such vibrant fall colors.

They drove to Redfish Lake and through Sun Valley, going over Galena Summit where there was quite a bit of snow. Sunday they returned Mrs. House to her home in Boise before driving on to Nyssa.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry A. Smith

Married Monday, September 21, at the Methodist Church in Harrisburg, Oregon were Miss Sue Shanks and Larry A. Smith.

Sue is a former foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grand Rinehart and made her home with them while finishing her education. She graduated from Nyssa High School in 1969. She is presently employed at Colonel Sanders in Corvallis.

He is completing his senior year at Oregon State University and majoring in mathematics. The newlyweds are at home at 234 N.W. 11th, Corvallis.

NYSSANS RETURN FROM NEW YORK

Mrs. Clayton Jensen, Mrs. Howard Myrick and Larry Miner returned to Nyssa Wednesday, September 16, after a full-filled ten day and night vacation in New York City. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Cruz and daughters. Mrs. Cruz will be remembered as Jean Baker of Nyssa, daughter of Mrs. Jensen.

Cruz is a native New Yorker and is a Detective on the New York Police Force which helped considerably as he hosted his guests in and around New York.

The Cruz family arranged for their guests to see the TV shows, "What's My Line" in the Ed Sullivan Theater, which was an especially interesting modern studio; and they saw the "Dick Cavet Show". They attended the Broadway show "Child's Play" at the Royal Theater. At Radio City Music Hall, they saw "My Darling Lili" with Julie Andrews and Rock Hudson, this was a movie followed by a stage show with the Rockettes and also the Flamenco Dancers from Spain. They also attended the Ice Follies of 1971 at Madison Square Gardens.

Points of interest visited by the group were Manhattan Historical Buildings such as the City Hall, Library and the Old Trinity Church built in the 1700s. They also especially enjoyed visiting St. Patrick's Cathedral. They viewed Rockefeller Center, the U.N. Building, Times Square, Coney Island, Wall Street, Central Park, the Shea Stadium (Home of the Mets)

Greenwich Village, Harlem, Little Italy, China Town, Brooklyn and the Bronx. They rode the Stanten Island Ferry and saw the Statue of Liberty. In Flushing Meadow Park they took a canoe ride around the lake. This is the site of the recent World's Fair.

Cruz and Larry attended the Republican Rally at the Toots Shor Restaurant where they heard Senator Percy of New York speak.

Quite frightening to the Nyssans was an experience at Rockefeller Plaza where they witnessed a "Peaceful" Arab Demonstration. There were over 250 participating in the protest against the President and the Vietnam War.

Mrs. Myrick remarked for the group that they all felt New York was a fantastic city, and Mr. and Mrs. Cruz were terrific guides, but Nyssa looked exceptionally good to them when they arrived home.

MEMBERS ENJOY SALMON FEED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newbill entertained members of the Mr. and Mrs. Bridge Club Sept. 20. Guests were Dr. and Mrs. John Olsen.

Members and guests were treated to a barbecued salmon feed. Newbills had caught the fish recently while deep sea fishing at Ilwaco, Washington. High honors went to Boyd Wilson.
