Yellow Rose Rebekahs Attend District Meet

Mrs. Angie Cook, Mrs. Joe Bellon, Mrs. Helmer Ostrom, Mrs. Virgie Rookstool, Mrs. Hazel Farr, Mrs. Owen Gann, Mrs. Leona Reeves, Mrs. Bertha Rudlick, Mrs. Tom Johnson, Mrs. Blanche Weeks, and Mrs. Rose Toombs were the 11 members of the Yellow Rose Rebekah Lodge of Nyssa who attended the 58th annual district meeting of Rebekah Lodges held Saturday, October 24, at the Oddfellows hall in Ontario, with Ontario's Beatrice Rebekah Lodge hosting the affair.

Registration began at noon with the meeting following at 1 p.m. This year's meeting was dedicated to the Rebekah's founder Schuyler Colfax.

Noble Grand, Nita Bisbee, opened the meeting which was then turned over to Wilma Anderson district chairman and to the district officers.

Gertrude Blanton gave the address of welcome to Jessie Goude, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon. She was honored with a song by Gertrude Blanton and Florence Pettet and presented a money corsage by Wilma Anderson. She was then presented to the lodge as paying her fraternal visit.

Honored guests were recognized and gifts were presented to all past chairmen and district officers.

Minutes of the previous district meeting were read by Genevieve Priest, secretary.

The meeting was then turned over to Jessie Goude who gave a short talk. Jessie Fraser presented the Decoration of Chivalry, and Rebekah Veteran Jewel information was given to Sophia Bethel, Effie Standage and Dorothy Winder, all members of the Golden Rule Lodge of Vale. Election by acclamation was given by Mrs. Gann of Nyssa.

Stardusters Meet To Elect Officers

Stardusters met at the Glenn Marcum home Monday evening, October 26, at which time election of officers was held.

Amelia Pratt was elected president, Edna Bacon, secretary; Vera Paulus, treasurer; and Louise Wernick, publicity. Eleven members answered roll call with a project selected for the coming year.

Kathleen Wheeler, chairman in charge, announced that an OES Starduster Mini Bazaar will be held Saturday, December 12, from 1 to 5 p.m. at the Masonic hall. Free coffee will be served.

Hazel Leavitt was presented with a seal for unwritten work by Jessie Goude, and all members took part in the renewal of the obligation lead by Mrs. Weeks of Nyssa.

An invitation was extended by Mrs. Reeves of Nyssa for the district meeting to be held there next year, and Wilma Anderson accepted.

Refreshments were served during the meeting and Fred Hislop provided the musical entertainment.

Many who attended the regular district meeting, remained and attended the 6:30 banquet at the La Paloma. This was followed by a special meeting for the three lodges at 8 p.m.

Myricks Entertain Family Dinners

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Myrick and Shelly entertained Saturday evening with a family dinner at the Casa Jaramillo Cafe in Ontario. The Saturday dinner was in honor of Jerry Myrick's birthday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Myrick and daughter, Vickie, of Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. Max Dane and Tammy of Phoenix, Arizona; and Russell Myrick and Ruth Ann McGinley, who were home from OSU.

While all of their children were home, the Myricks entertained Sunday with a pre-Thanksgiving dinner at their home. They served the same guests who attended the dinner the night before, plus Mrs. Myrick's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Jensen, and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Miner, Lori, and Larry; who was home from EOC in La Grande.

Russell and Larry returned to Corvallis and La Grande Sunday afternoon, and the Jerry Myricks returned home Monday. The Danes will visit his relatives this week and return to their home in Arizona next week.

Adrian PTA Slates October Meeting

Adrian PTA October meeting will be held this Thursday, October 29, at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

A short business meeting will be followed by a play presented by the Adrian eighth grade class. Its title is "Hassle '70" and was written by one of the eighth grade students, Carolyn Condra.

Open house will follow the presentation of the play to coincide with National Education Week.

Refreshments will be served.

Jacksons, Wilsons Have Week End Trip

M. and Mrs. Wilton Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson left Thursday to spend several days at The Salishan Resort on the coast. They were guests for brunch Saturday at the Tommy Holman residence in Albany. Mr. and Mrs. Holman accompanied the Jacksons and Wilsons to the Oregon State University football game in Corvallis Saturday afternoon and were their guests overnight Saturday at Lake Oswego.

Sunday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Martin and children, Susy and Wendy, Mr. and Mrs. John Wortendyke and David, and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wimmer were their breakfast guests. After breakfast, the Holmans and the Wilsons accompanied the Martins to the United Methodist Church in Portland where they attended the baptismal services for Wendi Martin.

The Wilsons and the Jacksons returned home Sunday evening.

Mrs. David Beers Enjoys Company

Mrs. David Beers is confined to a wheel chair, because of a leg injury suffered in a fall while on a hunting trip recently. She has been enjoying the many friends and neighbors who call at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Malloy were callers October 23, in honor of Mrs. Beers' birthday anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Duane Buchtel and family prepared a dinner and took it to the David Beers home last Sunday afternoon. The dinner was in honor of Mrs. Beers' birthday and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Beers of Sausalito, California. The latter are visiting here for several weeks during the hunting season. Mr. and Mrs. Elton Clapp, their daughter, Neta Wiley and children were Sunday evening visitors. Games were enjoyed and refreshments were served. Monday, Mrs. Cecil Evans of Nu Acres called, at the David Beers residence.

"And now, Mr. Citizen, who voted for the Sales Tax in the '69 Legislature?... you have 60 seconds."

It's worth a lot to know.

In Malheur County, citizens voted no. Five to one against, yet both of the Republican legislators, Senator Anthony Yturri and Representative Robert F. Smith, voted Yes. It cost $300,000 to find out what nine out of ten Oregon voters already knew. The Sales Tax was a bad bill, full of favors for special interests at the expense of "Mr. Citizen."

DON'T LET IT HAPPEN AGAIN! VOTE FOR DEMOCRATS ON NOV. 3rd - DEMOCRATS WHO ARE ON YOUR SIDE, MR. CITIZEN.

AL ULLMAN U.S. Representative, ROBERT STRAUB Governor, EMIL MAAG County Commissioner

These candidates favor taxes based on ability to pay... a fair share! Mark their names on your ballot. Paid for by Malheur County Democratic Central Committee, Jed Shane, Treasurer.
