Nyssa Defeats Parma, 77-58

Led by junior forward Greg Blanch scoring 18 points, and Rick Chester with 17, Nyssa's Bulldogs opened the basketball season with a 77-58 at home victory over the Parma Panthers in a non-conference game Tuesday night.

The score was knotted at 17 all at the end of the first quarter and Parma pulled ahead to a 35-31 lead at halftime. Pumps in 22 points in the third quarter, the Bulldogs pulled into a 53-47 lead.

Coach Gerald Talbot substituted freely in the last quarter, with all 16 varsity squad members seeing action, and the Bulldogs scored 24 more counters for the 77-58 victory.

Dority, Kouns Play On EOC Hockey Team

Coach Dr. Jean Neely of Eastern Oregon College in La-Grande reported that the victories this year of the EOC Hockey Team was due to an all-out team effort.

Margaret Dority and Susan Kouns, two of the regulars on the team, were really fired up in the OEC vs NNC game, and helped OEC defeat Northwest Nazarene with a score of 5-1.

8, Gross 8, Johnson 10, Sells 10, Coles 9, Bake 3, Stone 4, Gebert 2, Brixey 2 and Hopkins 2.

ONLY 15 DAYS left to shop

Maurine Schollian scored two of the goals and Pat Jacobson, Sue Kouns, and Margaret Dority each scored one. EOC Hockey Team closed a successful season with a record of 7-0-1 by winning three and tying one at the Northwest Field Hockey Conference recently held in Tacoma, Wash.
