There's Inspiration
As in all forms of art, the story of the Nativity has been a source of inspiration to iconographers through the ages.

The Madonna and Child have long been favorite subjects for icons, while Byzantine triptychs often showed Christ, Mary His Mother and John the Baptist.

Other early iconographers turned to St. Nicholas, bishop of Myra, as a subject worthy of attention. The good bishop is known in legend as the forefather of Santa Claus.

Guests Attend FHA Dinner

In the usual well organized way of the Nyssa High School FHA members, under the supervision of their Adviser, Mrs. Virginia Steffens, approximately 70 Future Homemakers of the present, and the past, with their mothers and honored guests met at the school cafeteria for the annual Christmas dinner.

Due to the unique and attractive centerpieces, the lighted candelabras and the Christmas favors and table covers, the cafeteria was converted to a rather personal room for dining in which the guests felt the true meaning of Christmas.

Guests were served punch and fruitcake squares from the reception table and enjoyed visiting for a short time before being seated at the tables for the program and dinner.

Becky Blaylock, president, welcomed the group and introduced honored guests. She then had each girl introduce her mother to the group. Patricia Wahlert lead the invocation song and dinner was served from a buffet table laden with not only delicious food, but food attractively prepared and served.

After the dinner, awards were presented to girls who had sold the most magazines in the FHA Magazine Selling contest. Jeanine Saito was presented a $25 bonus for selling the most. The girls presented Mrs. Steffens a gift and also presented Mrs. Larry Saito a gift in appreciation of the help she has always given the FHA.

Many other gifts of canned foods, jellies, and fruitcakes were given. These gifts had all been prepared by the class during the school year.

Patricia again led the group in carol singing and Christmas songs.

Guest speaker Mrs. LeRoy (Coralee) Huff told the group about Christmas in England, their traditions and foods, compared to Christmas in the United States.

Mrs. Huff came to the United States by herself when she was 18 years old and lived with a family who were friends of her parents. Her husband is the County Sanitarian and she has a two and one-half year old daughter, Anjanet.

After Mrs. Huff's interesting talk, FHA President wished all a Merry Christmas and thanked all for coming to make the dinner such a success.
