The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams of Culdesac, and has taught school in the La Grande school system for the past three years. The groom is the son of Mrs. Tina Schiemer, and is a successful farmer. The couple will make their home in the Newell Heights area.

Knife & Fork Club Speaker

Dr. Howard W. Runkel, who heads the Department of Rhetoric and Public Address at Willamette University, and who has been a popular favorite with over 700 audiences in the Northwest during his tenure at the Salem education institution, will be the guest speaker at the next meeting of the Knife and Fork Club at its meeting Thursday, January 7 at 7:30 p.m. at the East Side Cafe. Runkel, a native of Wisconsin, defies the tradition that all speech professors should look like something that suddenly emerged from behind the bookshelves of the city library after being in seclusion for several months. Instead he is a trim, six foot four, looks like he might be a basketball player with tremendous finesse, has an engaging smile and magnetic personality.

Good as he looks, persons who have heard him say he is an even better speaker than he first appears. His address here, "The Challenge of Change," might be of the nature that could cause his listeners to sit up and take notice.

Townes Enjoy Holiday Trip
