

OUT OF THE PAST

10 YEARS AGO

Adrian area residents, estimated at 100, attended an appreciation dinner Sunday for the Rev. and Mrs. Henry Moore. The dinner followed regular Sunday morning worship at Adrian Community Church.

The Rev. Moore retired from his pastoral duties at the beginning of this year. He came to Adrian Church from Portland 14 years ago. The Rev. and Mrs. Moore plan to remain in Adrian where Mrs. Moore is home economics instructor and librarian in the Adrian High School.

On behalf of church members and friends, Mrs. M.L. Judd presented the Moores with a money tree gift.

Nyssa swimming pool committee, representing the Lions Club and city planning commission, reports that with the city council having approved a resolution to submit a $60,000 bond issue to voters, most preliminary details have now been worked out.

Nyssa FFA Chapter boys, who were among those competing in district skills contests held Jan. 26 in Baker were Dick McPartland, Reed Patterson, Sam Smit, Andrew Child, D.L. Fife, George Jones and Reed Child. These boys all made high ratings in the contest events.

The esteem in which Judge Don M. Graham is held by residents of Nyssa and community was expressed at a farewell session held at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Wednesday.

Clyde Snider, local attorney praised Graham for his community activity and his enthusiasm in returning to the service at the age of 57 years. Snider paid tribute to Judge Graham for the way he has handled his positions of trust and added that "we feel humble before the willingness of the judge to serve his country when he could take it easy. Judge Graham, we hope your lucky star will guide you on the new frontiers that you seek with patriotic zeal".

Nyssa is without a cold storage plant and will probably be without one for some time to come as the result of the spectacular destruction of the $100,000 Polar Cold Storage and Locker Plant, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd T. Marshall. Thousands of pounds of meat, fruits and vegetables were destroyed in the fire that swept through the establishment before a strong cold north wind Sunday.

Marshall said that he had no intention of rebuilding the plant, on which he carried very little insurance. The owners were not responsible for the food stored in the building, and as a result, hundreds of customers appeared at the scene of the fire Monday and Tuesday to attempt to salvage what they could.

John Holly, Adrian postmaster will soon end a long career in the postal service. He will retire from the postmastership upon the completion of competitive examinations which will be held and his successor named. Holly has been a postmaster for the past 30 years, having held that position in the old Riverview Postoffice, before it was moved to Adrian in 1917.

Carload shipping from Nyssa for 1940, shows an increase of 161 cars over 1939, according to figures released by E.C. Crandall, local agent for the Union Pacific. White Satin Sugar leads this list with 739 carloads, potatoes next with 457 carloads, and lettuce with 448 carloads.

Total carloading shipped from the Nyssa Depot was 2440, undoubtedly the largest outgoing shipping of any point in the country.

A bill that would raise the annual salary of the Malheur County School Superintendent from $1500 to $1800 has been introduced by Representative Virgil Staples, following the circulation of a petition in the county asking for the pay raise. It was signed by a large number of the taxpayers of the county. The petition asking for the pay raise cited the large increase in the student enrollment in the county with additional responsibility on the part of the School Superintendent.

50 YEARS AGO

According to the report of Emery Beard, a Nyssa lad about 11 years of age, last Friday night his grandmother gave him a small sum of money and sent him up town on an errand for her. He was to have the change left, from the purchase of the article for her. After his errand was finished he proceeded to the drug store and bought himself some marbles with the change. While returning to his grandmothers, he passed the hall where the dance was in progress, and someone followed him a short distance, caught him, put something over Emery's face so he could not see, turned him upside down and when his marbles all fell out of his pockets the party picked them up and kept them, sent him on home. He spent the night at his grandmothers. Now he is much puzzled as to who would do this. It must have been someone who saw him buy the marbles, and wanted them, or else they did it for a joke on him. Anyway, he regrets the loss.

Thursday is booked for a big day for Nyssa. You must be here. The Oregon Short Line has gone to a lot of trouble to make this a profitable one for every rancher in this neighborhood or any other that might want to attend the doings at this point. It is the rancher that is going to profit this time, not the merchants. Plan to be on hand to hear some of the foremost men of the country lecture on all the branches of farm husbandry. This is a treat that we get only once a year so everyone should avail himself or herself of this great opportunity. The experience of these men is worth a great deal and it is offered to you for your time. Is it worth it? There can only be one answer to that and that answer is yes.

The train consists of one flat car, one baggage car with animals, one baggage car with dry farm exhibits, etc., two coaches for lecture purposes and two composite cars. The train will be in Nyssa, according to schedule, at 11:30 and will remain for thirty minutes. Remember the date, Thursday 19, 1911.

Lunch will be served at noon. There will be a baby sitter.

CRADLE ROLL

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Parker, Adrian, had two new granddaughters born four days apart. The first was born January 29 to Mr. and Mrs. David Ramsdell, Battle Mountain, Nevada and weighed 7 pounds 12 ounces. On February 3, a 7 pound 9 ounce girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bedegi of Nampa. MALHEUR MEMORIAL HOSPITAL JAN 30 - Mr. and Mrs. Constantino Anvejar of Vale, a boy.

St. Bridget's News

A successful potluck dinner was held Saturday evening in St. Bridget's Hall. Following the meal Chalupa was played. This is a type of Mexican bingo. Those who brought the various dishes for the meal restricted themselves to Mexican style food. The cards of the Chalupa game were called out in Spanish, and then shown, so they could be identified. John Studer won a four-pound box of candy early in the evening, and immediately made it available to all the tables. Ruben Lopez called out the cards in Spanish for the Chalupa. Mr. and Mrs. Leos, their two sons, and their wives, from Adrian were the largest group of one family present.

St. Bridget's Alter Society meeting Tuesday evening discussed a change in the format of future meetings, and the purpose of them. It is hoped to have future meetings concern the officers and committee chairmen, and to thus direct more attention to the many successful social activities already in progress in the parish.

Amity Women Meet

Amity Club met Saturday evening, January 23, at the home of Mrs. Frank Skeen with 12 attending.

An interesting program on Thailand was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Dee Garner who explained slides on Thailand as they were shown, and related to the group information they had received from their son, Elder Roger Garner who is serving a Mission in Thailand. Mrs. Taft Pett was prize winner and after the program, refreshments were served.

St. Bridget's junior high group were pleased at the success of their showing of the movie, "Operation Madball". During the intermission, pop corn was provided, and following the film a dance was held with punch being served during the dance. Over 65 junior high students were in attendance.

St. Bridget's High School CYO group conducted a successful coffee and doughnut hour following the Masses Sunday morning. They have now earned slightly over $100. and have voted to send $100. to San Carlos Hospital in Altamirano, Chiapas Mexico. Attendance at the coffees has gradually increased over the past two years.
