Ann Marie Cameron Wears Mother's Wedding Gown

Miss Ann Marie Cameron became the bride of Michael Ralph Bell on December 26, 1970. Bishop Farrell Peterson performed the 8 p.m. double-blessing ceremony, in the Cultural Hall of the Owyhee Ward, LDS Church, in the presence of 200 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Emery Cameron of Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bell of Oregon Slope.

The bride was gowned in a princess style white satin wedding dress of her mother. It featured a Bertha collar gathered at the shoulders, long fitted sleeves and a train. Her elbow length veil of illusion was held in place by a chiffon rose and seed pearl headpiece. She carried a bridal bouquet of white gardenias and carnations.

Maid of honor was her cousin, Elise Anderson of Nanaimo, British Columbia. She was attired in a blue velvet floor-length gown and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Darrell Patterson of Idaho Falls, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man. Donald Brown, Jr., cousin of the groom, and Dick Cameron, brother of the bride, ushered the guests.

Soloist Mrs. Mark Hartley sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Le Anne Gooch. De Ann Peterson, organist, played the wedding march.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church. Mrs. Horace Chaney served the beautiful four-tiered blue and white wedding cake that she had baked and decorated. Assisting with the reception were Mmes. Merrill Call, Jerry Sloan and Lloyd Piercy. Others assisting were Sally Riley, Cherry Lee Chamberlain, Louise Joy and Tami Cameron.

The bride was graduated from Adrian School in 1969 and also graduated from Western Beauty College in Ontario. The groom, a 1967 graduate of Ontario High School, is employed as an engineering aide by the City of Ontario.

The couple honeymooned in West Yellowstone and Jackson Hole, Wyoming and are now at home in Ontario.

Golden Rule Chapter #131 O.E.S. met February 1, with Worthy Matron Patricia Marcum presiding. Worthy Matron Patricia Marcum and Worthy Patron, Robert Holmes, honored the Star Points and a gift was presented each.

Escorted was Lucinda Daniels and all sang "Happy Birthday" and she admitted to 85 years. Stardusters will hold their next meeting February 8 at the home of Amelia Pratt in Ontario.

A report was given on visitation to Silver Star Chapter in Homedale on January 19.

Next meeting will be Brother's Night, under the direction of George Cartwright on February 15.
