

Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. M.L. Judd of Adrian, and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. "Hop" Kinney of Ontario, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversaries at a reception held Sunday, January 31, in the Lion's Den of the Eastside Cafe in Ontario.

Over 400 friends attended the affair hosted by their children, Mrs. John (Judd) Downer of Taft, Calif., Mrs. Sally (Kinney) Judd and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Kinney, both of Ontario.

The main table, which was approximately 16 feet long, was centered with a very large arrangement of white carnations and golden daffodils with yellow satin ribbons. At each side of the arrangement was a three-tiered wedding cake with the beverage services at each end.

At the punch table there were two arrangements of large golden chrysanthemums. All of the other tables had many flower arrangements corresponding with the main table.

There was one table completely filled with flower arrangements which were gifts to the honored couples.

The tables were all covered

Members of the Stardusters met February 8 at the home of Amalie Pratt in Ontario. The business meeting was conducted by President Mrs. Pratt, with 14 members present. Plans were made for the Washington banquet to be served by the Stardusters, February 19, at the Methodist Church.

After the meeting, members made table decorations to be used at the banquet. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Next meeting will be held March 8 at the home of Rose Willis in Adrian.

Other than those from out of the Weiser-to-the-Boise-Valley area attending were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Judd of Jerome, Mr. and Mrs. Paul House of Quincy, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Carol Locey of Ironsides, Mrs. Sara Canfield of Ogden, and Mrs. Bert Lolland of Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. Judd were married at Adrian February 2, 1921 and have farmed there all their lives. They have been active members of the Kingman Memorial Presbyterian Church in Adrian. They are members of the Masonic Lodge and Eastern Star at Nyssa and have been active in scouting and school work. Judd has raised alfalfa seed for many years and is active in a number of farming organizations. Mrs. Judd is a member of the garden club there and the area Chrysanthemum Club.

The Kinneys are also very active in community affairs. Kinney was a member of the Ontario City Council for 18 years and they have been active in Masons and Eastern Star, school and church affairs and in scout work.

After the reception there was a Sunday evening family dinner at the Eastside Cafe for 26 family members.

AAUW Hears Migrant Nurse

The health problems and services of the migrant farm workers was the topic of Monday evening meeting of the Ontario Branch of the American Association of University Women. Mrs. Fern Cramer, Malheur County Migrant Health Nurse was guest speaker.

She talked of the success and problems in reaching the Mexican-American migrants and told the group that the department continued to provide health care to those migrants remaining in the county through the winter if they were on public assistance.

As the population growth problem has been a part of the of the local branch through the year, Mrs. Cramer talked of the role the health department plays in guidance, counseling, medication and surgery for birth control. She feels that the program has been highly successful and says that her department will provide a winter supply of pills for those migrants leaving the county in order for the families to remain on the program.

The primary health problems of the migrant are malnutrition and poor teeth Mrs. Cramer told the group. Immunization clinics are the primary source

FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE

The Friendship Club met Feb. 5 at the home of Mrs. Ida Walters. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Mae Bellon and Mrs. Nellie Newbill.

NEEDLES AND SPOONS

Last Wednesday, February 3, we met at the home of Mrs. Donna Thomas for our sewing class.

We have two new members. They are Mary Ann Chadwick and Terry Ulrey. Other members are Linda Church, Sandra Thomas and Laurie Wright.

We worked on our oven mitts. Refreshments were brought by Linda Church. Afterwards we played a game.

Laurie Wright, reporter.

Word was received that Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Auker of Boise are the parents of a baby girl. Dodi Lianne, was born January 21, 1971 and weighed seven pounds four ounces.

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Fred Schilling of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Auker of California.

Dodi joins two brothers, Gene, five years of age and Danny, 15 months.

KITCHEN QUEENS

Our 4-H leaders are Mrs. Jean Thompson and Mrs. Virginia Cleaver. Our first meeting was held at Virginia Cleaver's December 21. We decided who our officers were, President, Julie Garner, Vice President, Lorie Cleaver, Secretary, Gale Cleaver, Reporter, Jamie Garner, and Song and Game Leaders, Kathy Thompson and Dorie Beckstead.

Three are in the first group. Six are in the second group, and three in the third group.

Our second meeting was held at Virginia Cleaver's January 5. The first group made frankfurters, the second group, made Pecos Bill Burgers and Thousand Island dressing. The third group made spaghetti.

Our third meeting was held at Jean Thompson's house January 12. The first group made pudding, the second group made snickerdoodles, and the third group made macaroni and cheese.

From the northwest through the heart of the nation Ship direct... ship Union Pacific.

Our area is famous for many products. We're known throughout the country for our giant paper and forest products industries, our growing potato industry and our many manufactured products.

In addition to the usual, we have the unusual. Seed peas from the rolling Palouse hills, fresh fruits from the fertile green valleys, and the many minerals from our rich mines. The Northwest produces the products and Union Pacific carries them to market... the fast way, through the heart of the nation.
