

Mr. And Mrs. Stanley Fenn Observe 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fenn celebrated 50 years of married life with many friends and family members attending an open house Sunday, March 14, at their home in Albany, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Fenn were married February 17, 1921, in Nampa, Idaho, and were residents of the Nyssa and Newell Heights area. They left here to make their home in Madras for a few years and then moved to Albany. Fenn is a retired construction worker.

The couple have eight children still living, two deceased; 42 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE

Friendship Circle met at IOOF hall with Orma Cleaver, president, presiding. Fourteen members answered roll call. Mrs. Armittee Bartholomew was a guest.

After the business meeting Bunco was played with prizes going to Angie Cook, Nellie Jenkins and Mrs. Cleaver. An Easter basket exchange was held.

Hostesses for this meeting were Blanche Weeks and Hazel Farr.

Next meeting will be a guest day and Mothers Day meeting combined and will be held at 2 p.m. at the IOOF hall May 7.

ADRIAN PTA MEETING

A meeting of the Adrian PTA will be held at 8 p.m., Thursday, April 15 in the school gym. The program will be a play "Sure as Your Born," to be presented by James Phelps sixth-grade class.

It is reported, that the PTA members voted to spend $1,000 on Video Tape equipment, to be used for the grade and high schools. Most of the money for the equipment was raised at the recent PTASmorgasbord.

Following the program by the sixth-grade class, refreshments will be served.

GRANGE NEWS

Members of Oregon Trail Grange met in regular session Thursday evening, April 1, with Master Don Somers presiding. Visitors were State Grange Deputy Robert Coble of Richland, Insurance Agent Wilbur Atherton, Mrs. Atherton and Mrs. Harley Noah of Boulevard Grange.

Mrs. Eric Boenig was installed as secretary by Deputy Coble. Assisted by Assistant Stewards Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Metcalf and Frank Sherwood as Emblem Bearer.

Senate Bills discussed were SN492, migrant housing; SB582 concerning contracts by 18-year-olds; SB677 farm labor relations; SB454 concerning having no more than 16 members in a corporation. Legislative Chairman Frank Sherwood called attention to the Truck Drivers Safety proposal and urged members to become aware of the contents of the proposed law.

Members voted to donate $10 for a plaque for the winner of the FFA speaking contest.

Refreshments were served to 24 members and one juvenile guest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thomas by the Boenig and Thomas couples.

Next grange meeting will be held Thursday evening, April 15. The new starting time will be 8:30 p.m. All grange members are urged to attend.

THANK YOU!

We wish to thank the Adrian Fire Department for their prompt arrival and for the very efficient work they did in controlling the fire we had Saturday afternoon.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Fahrbruch

Nyssa FHA Members Attend State Meeting

"The Answer is Blowing in the Wind" appropriately served as the theme for the 26th Annual Future Homemakers of America State Meeting in Corvallis on the Oregon State University campus, April 2 and 3.

Attending from Nyssa were Norma Rodriguez, chapter president; Sharon Kurtz, chapter vice-president; Jeanine Saito, FHA Oregon State Secretary; Mrs. Larry Saito; and Mrs. Virginia Steffens, chapter adviser.

To improve communications through use of the four strong winds of FHA - listening, talking, observing, doing - was the overall goal of the meeting.

The first general session opened Friday after lunch. A special presentation was made by Dr. Sylvia Lee to the chapter who had donated the most money per member to the National FHA Headquarters Building Fund. The Nyssa Chapter was awarded a scroll for their outstanding contribution.

A panel discussion consisting of adults and youth, moderated by Glenn Brostrom, discussed the topic "Communications of Peers and Partners." State officer nominees, who were introduced during the opening luncheon, answered impromptu questions before the delegates.

New at the state meeting this year was the FHA All-State Chorus, made up of delegates from throughout the state. Director of the choir was Gordan Tjernlund who also led group singing at the general sessions.

Dr. Sterling Ellsworth, speaker for the Friday night banquet, captured the interest of those attending with his presentation on "Self Understanding - Key to Honest Communications." Honorary memberships were presented to Mrs. Phyllis Knight Griffith, associate dean of students at Oregon College of Education and Dr. Robert W. MacVicar, president of Oregon State University.

Presiding over the Saturday breakfast was Jeanine Saito, state secretary. Invocation was given by Norma Rodriguez.

New state officers were announced during the second general session. Gaining the president's post was Sheryl Gilvinski from Milwaukie High. Leona Musgrove from Vale High was elected state vice-president.

"Who Will Answer" was the topic presentation by Kirby Brumfield, announcer for KATU - TV. Brumfield used a variety of communicating devices such as music, slides, and films. The Reverend James Hulett of the Vermont Hills Methodist Church posed the question, "Have We a Usable Future" as the Saturday luncheon speaker.

A state officers' farewell, created and narrated by Jeanine Saito, was presented by the retiring officers. Concluding the 1971 state meeting was the installation of the new officers.
