Jorgensen - Rupp United In Idaho Falls Temple

Repeating vows March 19, 1971 at the Idaho Falls LDS Temple were Jolene Jorgensen and J. Kent Rupp.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jorgensen of Rt. 2, Parma, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Rupp of Meridian.

A reception honoring the couple was held March 26 in the Parma Ward LDS Cultural Hall. The bridal colors of green and yellow decorated the hall. Gary Ellibe was master of ceremonies for the program.

The bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white organza, styled with an empire waist and scoop neckline edged with lace. It featured long sheer full sleeves gathered into tight lace cuffs. Her full length veil edged in lace, formed a train at the back. She carried a cascading bouquet of white daisies, daisy chrysanthemums and yellow rosebuds.

Maid of honor was Gaynal Jorgensen and bridesmaids were Jolanne Hanson of Provo; Donna Bigler, Jeanette Noble of Moose, Idaho; and Rhonda Rupp. All bridal attendants were gowned in green chiffon and lace, and carried bouquets of white daisies.

Rick Postlethwait served as best man and ushering the guests were Dan Haile and Steve Whitaker.

The new Mrs. Rupp is a 1969 graduate of Parma High School and attended TVCC for a year. She is employed by the Union Pacific Railroad. Her husband is a 1966 graduate of Meridian High School and graduated from TVCC.

After a wedding trip to Salt Lake and Southern Utah the newlyweds are making their home in Kamiah, Idaho where he is employed in farming.
