

Life Long Residents Celebrate 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bullard of the Ontario-Nyssa area were honored on their Golden Anniversary at open house held at the Boulevard Grange Hall May 23 from 2 - 6 p.m.

Their son and wife and two daughters and husbands were hosts and hostesses of the reception. They are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jensen (Wilma) of Boise, Mr. and Mrs. George R. (Betty) Boyack of Meridian, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bullard of Ontario.

The honored couple was married May 22, 1921 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dail of the Arcadia Community in the presence of their immediate families.

The officiating minister was Rev. Chas. Blom, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ontario.

At the time of their marriage Mrs. Bullard had just finished the term teaching at the old Lincoln School on the Vale highway. This school has been discontinued and torn down. Bullard was a young farmer at which occupation he still likes to work as much as possible.

They have made their home in the Arcadia Community all of their 50 years together. They both came here as children with their parents, turning new farm land from sagebrush to productivity.

Mrs. Bullard wore a pink lace dress over pink taffetta with an orchid corsage for the reception.

They repeated their marriage vows with Rev. Fred Moxom pastor of the Owyhee Community Church officiating and Rev. Arthur Skogan, a former pastor, giving the benediction.

The hall was beautifully decorated with golden bells and gold streamers. There were many beautiful bouquets. The original wedding clothes were on display as were many pictures of the past years of their lives along with their family.

The serving table was covered by white net over a white table cloth draped with gold chrysanthums gathered in the net.

It was centered by a beautiful four-tiered wedding cake trimmed with yellow roses and topped with a little grey haired bride and groom placed before a white heart edged with gold, and a golden 50 in the center of the heart.

Two hundred twenty people signed the guest book which was attended by the two granddaughters, Nancy Boyack and Kristi Bullard.
