Piano Students Have Auditions

There will be 120 students from surrounding towns competing in the National Piano Auditions, beginning Tuesday, June 1, through Saturday, June 5th. Professor James L. Duncan, head of the music department of the University of Southern Colorado at Pueblo, Colorado, will judge these students in the auditorium at the Ontario High School.

The participants will each play a program of memorized pieces and be judged on the fine points of piano technic.

After Professor Duncan finishes in Ontario he will spend two weeks in Boise judging auditions there.

Alice Nishitani's students who will play are Lori Lewis, Carmen and Audrey Astoreca, Monica Quinowski, Jill and Megan Jackson, Paula Saito, Leah Condon, Gall and Dena Hirai, Sharlene Kido, Jeanine and Lori Saito, Jan Saito, Libby Miller, Miriam and Kathy Kunkel and Sally Looney. Mrs. Jane Ballou's students are Beth Calhoun and Joy Ballou.

Sr. Citizens Make Sale Announcement

Members of the Nyssa Senior Citizens announce a rummage sale being planned for the near future with a definite date to be announced later.

Citizens of the committee in charge would like to remind people of the sale and anyone who has furniture, pictures, clothing, dishes or any miscellaneous items to give to the group for the sale need only to call and have it picked up.

Date of the sale and pick-up service will be announced after the next meeting of the Senior Citizens of Nyssa.

Legal Secretaries To Install Officers

The May meeting of the Malheur County Legal Secretaries Association was held May 27, at the home of Billie Willis in Ontario.

Plans for the installation of Officers on June 12 were announced. The installation will be held at the Palomino Cafe in Ontario. Darlena Hargett of LaGrande who was recently selected Legal Secretary of the Year by the Oregon Association of Legal Secretaries has consented to be installing officer.

The next regular meeting will be June 24 at the Twilight Cafe in Nyssa.
