Ullman said he and Rep. James A. McClure (R-Ida.) would accompany Rep. Roy A. Taylor (D.N.C), chairman of the committee, on the Snake River inspection tour.

"I'm delighted to have an River country," said Taylor, who heads the House National Parks and Recreation subcommittee.

Ullman said tentative plans were to fly into Hells Canyon by helicopter from Boise. He said the party would probably inspect the canyon rim near Hat Point and on the Idaho side, and then fly on to Enterprise for the

HOUSE TASK-FORCE TO MEET FRIDAY

The House Task Force on Farm Labor will hold a public hearing Friday, July 23, in the Cafeteria of the Weese building at Treasure Valley Community College at 10 a.m.

Joe Hobson of the Malheur County Farm Bureau, is assisting the Task Force in making arrangements for the Ontario meeting and requests that anyone wishing to appear before the Task Force, or anyone interested in participating at the meeting should contact him.

BLM MANAGER CHAMBER SPEAKER

Max Lieurance, manager of the BLM Vale District, was principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Nyssa Chamber of Commerce at Brownie's Cafe Wednesday noon. Lieurance was accompanied by his wife, Marcia, who has been Boise Statesman reporter for the Nyssa, Vale area. They are moving to Portland where he will be in charge of the BLM office there.

Special guests of the Chamber were Dr. Frank Sykes, Dr. Jon Heitzman, Noah Bass and Bill Stout, newcomers to the business and professional community of Nyssa.

Chamber members adopted unanimously a statement to be presented to the Farm Labor Task Force Hearing in Ontario on Friday.

The chairman and members want to conduct some field

Ullman's proposal to establish Hells Canyon National Recreation Area must come before Taylor's committee for consideration. Taylor has not yet scheduled hearings.

Although his bill seeks to preserve rim access to the canyon, Ullman said recently he would not oppose a five-year moratorium on dam building.

"This is an issue of national opportunity to visit the Snake importance, " Ullman said, "and I'm pleased the chairman and members of the committee will get an opportunity to see closeup the startling beauty of the area."

"My proposal is essential to developing the economy of eastern Oregon and western Idaho," Ullman continued, "but to make the area a viable national recreation spot requires rim access."

Opens Practice

Dr. Jon E. Heitzman announces the opening of his Optometry Practice in Nyssa next Monday, July 26. His office will be located at 7 N. 2nd Street in the back of the Michael's Pharmacy building.

Dr. Heitzman is a native of Jerome, Idaho where he graduated from high school. He attended Weber State College in Ogden, Utah for three years and graduated from Pacific University at Forest Grove with a BS degree. He then attended the Pacific University College of Optometry for four years, in May.

Dr. Heitzman said that he picked Nyssa primarily because he wanted to locate in the Treassure Valley, and felt that Nyssa needed and could support an Optometrist. He invited Nyssa area residents to come in and visit his new modern offices; and hopes when they need eye care he can save them the bothe of going to some other com munity for this service.

His practice includes not onl the examination and fitting of eye glasses but also a complet department for fitting contac their week-long trip to the Calgary Stampede, and won much applause for their performances at the Canadian city.

Mrs. Heitzman (Nancy) is als from Jerome, and they an their 14-month old daughter Shauna are at home at Fischer's 7/21/71 639,500 Acre Feet Mobile Home Park.

Jan Saito In Sweden

Steve Fonda, president of the Nyssa AFS Chapter, received the following card from Jan Saito, who is in Sweden with the Americans Abroadprogram of AFS for the summer. Her card reads as follows: Dear Mr. Fonda:

I made it to Sweden via New York and Copenhagen, and I really love it. All the people receiving his optometry degree are very helpful, and the country itself is so green and beau-

The AFS is very protective of the students, and they want us to be happy so they make sure that everything is all right Sunday I will go to the West Coast and meet the U.S. AFS'ers that are returning home after a full year here. My family cannot speak English very well, but between their English and my Swedish we have a riot, and eventually understand each other. Thank you and the AFS for sending me here! Love, Jan

MALHEUR COUNTY FAIR PLANS REVEALED, DATES SET FOR AUGUST 18-21

Builders.

The kick-off for the sixty- as a rest area by the Empire second Annual Malheur County Fair scheduled for August 18-21 was held at the Fairgrounds Friday, July 16, with a press conference and a work day by members of the 4-H Empire

Representatives of the press, radio, television and community organizations were on hand to view recent improvements at the grounds and the work activity of the young people. Refreshments were served in the Commercial Building where a colorful poster display proclaimed the coming fair.

Gordon Capps, Chairman of the Board presented Ernie and Icel Princehouse with an engraved silver tray in recognition of their long and faithful service to the Board and the community as caretakers of the Malheur County Fairgrounds. Princehouse resigned the first of the month and at present is enjoying a more leisurly pace than he has over the past years at the fair-Board members were on hand to help the 4-H Clubs and FFA Chapters with the start of the advance button selling campaign. These two groups are selling admission buttons in competition with an award of $25.00 given by the Fair Board to the club or chapter selling the most buttons. Youngsters shown are participants in a Nutrition Day Camp sponsored by the Extension Service, Oregon State University, and directed by Miss Nadine Spitze. It is a three-day camp held in the South

City Park. This is the first of 10 camps to be held in the Nyssa, Ontario, Vale areas. The purpose of the camp is to give children a camping experience and a nutrition background, teaching them advantages of a balanced diet and regular meals. Recipes using surplus foods are used.

Nyssa Chamber Adopts Statement For Hearing

The Nyssa Chamber of Commerce adopted the following statement for presentation to the Farm Labor Task Force Hearing at Ontario Friday. The statement reads as follows: The business community of the City of Nyssa, as represented by the Chamber of Commerce, hereby wishes to go on record as being in favor of farm-labor legislation which promote tranquility and a minimum of conflict between farmers and farm workers. This community's primary purpose is to serve agriculture, both the farmers and their employees. When there is strife and ill feeling between the two groups, the community suffers along with the entire agricultural community. For that reason the Nyssa Chamber of Commerce encourages the committee appointed by the Speaker of the Oregon House of Representatives to propose legislation which will encourage fair treatment for all.

A common misunderstanding which exists among people who are not residents of this area, and a misunderstanding which commonly appears in print in the Oregonian and other metropolitan newspapers, is that the agricultural community in the Treasure Valley area is divided into two camps, one "Chicanos" and the other employers who are largely the socalled "Anglos". This is not factual. This community is united and those persons who call themselves "Chicanos" are very few in number. The Mexican-American workers who have worked in this community for many years, many of whom now have made their permanent homes here, are very much a part of the overall united community. A few militants, many of whom claim to be farm workers but really are not, are the people that receive the publicity and agitate in an attempt to drive a wedge between people residing here. We encourage the Committee to take note of these factors in its deliberations.

The Chamber of Commerce wishes to commend Speaker Smith for his prompt action after the very unwise veto of Governor McCall, and it is our sincere hope that the Committee will recommend legislation which protects the rights of the farm workers as well as the farmers, which also assures that during harvest there is a time when men can work without fear that their jobs will be interrupted and farmers are free from threats, strikes and other acts which unfairly disrupt
