

"Tree" Again Home At Cleavers

Mrs. Orma Cleaver decided she could no longer tolerate a certain tree in her yard so with the help of her family, she had the tree removed on Memorial Day.

Being in a fine friendly neighborhood, the Cleavers wished to share with their neighbors, so very kindly placed the unwanted tree in their good neighbor Charlie Zinn's yard.

Mrs. Cleaver attended the graduation of her grandson in June and upon her return home, was amazed to see her tree "cemented" back in her own yard.

Since "Tree" seems to be in a rather permanent place, Mrs. Cleaver and her friends held a "Ceremonial Tree Trimming"

Tuesday evening by having a gay time wiring all different kinds, shapes and colored bottles to "Tree".

"Tree" has never had it so good! Once again it is a member of the Cleaver household.

Louella Findling-Rusty Talbot Exchange June Wedding Vows

Repeating wedding vows in the Malheur Butte Baptist Church on Saturday June 26, 1971 were Miss Louella Findling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Findling of Rt. 1 Nyssa and Rusty Talbot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buster Talbot of Rt. 1 Ontario.

Officiating at the 7 p.m. double-ring ceremony, in the presence of 100 guests was the Rev. Roy Webb, grandfather of the bride.

Church decorations were large baskets of pink gladioli. Miss Diane Walz sang "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Wilson Winters, who was also in charge of floral arrangements.

Louella, given in marriage by her parents was escorted to the altar on the arm of her brother, Ken Findling. The attractive bride wore a street-length dress of sculptured brocade, fashioned with an empire waist and V-neckline. It featured full sleeves, gathered into deep cuffs. The bodice front and cuffs were trimmed with tiny bouquets. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations against a background of blue with blue ribbon streamers.

The maid of honor, Tina Findling, sister of the bride, wore a street-length dress of blue lace over taffeta. The empire waist was accented with a blue satin bow and streamers. Her gown featured a scoop neckline and long lace sleeves. She wore a corsage of white carnations accented with blue ribbon.

Myron Osborn Jr. served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Findling wore a gold A-line dress of street-length. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a street-length dress of pink and white. They had identical corsages of white rosebuds.

A reception honoring the couple was held in the church basement following the ceremony. A three-tiered white cake decorated with blue roses trimmed with silver leaves and topped with a miniature bride and groom formed the centerpiece.

For going away the bride wore her wedding dress. After a short wedding trip the young couple are now at home on Columbia Avenue, Rt. 2 Nyssa.

Both the new Mr. and Mrs. Talbot are graduates of Adrian High School. The bride attended TVCC and is employed at Bonanza 88¢ Store in Ontario. The groom is employed by Desser Seed of Nyssa.

Among the guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Roy Webb, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Culbertson and Mrs. Fred Bennett, all grandparents of the groom.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ratigan and family of Graham, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cook and son of Nampa; Mr. and Mrs. Dick McCurry of Parma, Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Uttinger of Boise; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Reid and Paula of Halfway; Mrs. Marjorie Coe and son Lyle of Roseburg.

Meet Nellie Pounds

Nellie can help make your vacation a little more carefree with a variety of vacation services at the Nyssa branch of First National Bank of Oregon.

Born in Nyssa, Nellie attended schools here and began her banking career with First National 15 years ago. She married Dick Pounds in 1958, who is currently Chief Deputy with the Malheur County Sheriff's Dept. Nellie left First National for 5 years in 1959 to start a family; the Pounds now have two children... Cheryl, age 11 and Teri, age 8. Last year the Pounds had a new home built, and they have been busy painting inside and outside, and planting lawn and evergreen trees.

In her spare time, Nellie enjoys hunting and fishing. Dick and Nellie work with the Bantam and Junior Bowling Leagues helping youngsters from 7 to 18 enjoy bowling.

Whatever your summertime vacation plans, Nellie can help make your traveling a little easier. Here's a few First National travel reminders:

- Convert your cash into Travelers Checks.
- Be prepared for emergencies with a BankAmericard.
- Leaving the country? Convert your money in advance to foreign currency.
- Protect your valuables in a safe deposit box.
- Pick up a "Vacation Services" checklist brochure.

And for those traveling expenses, Nellie can help arrange a travel loan with low bank interest and repayment terms that won't hurt your budget when you return. So, before you leave, see Nellie Pounds. Then, have a carefree vacation!

We'd like to get to know you.
