CLAY MYERS, Oregon Secretary of State, has prepared a plan of reapportionment which would enlarge the senate district Malheur County is in to include Harney, Lake, Malheur, Baker, Grant, Wheeler and Crook counties. Democrats have indicated they will protest the plan. The new plan would permit Oregonians to vote for just one state senator and one representative.

Ontario Nationals Win "Babe Ruth" Tournament

Doing it the hard way the Ontario Nationals won the Babe Ruth 13 year olds All Star Championship when they took on Baker twice Monday July 26 at the Ontario Jr. Hi field.

The Ontario National earned the right to meet Baker in the Championship game by defeating Wallowa Valley 10-4 in their first tournament game Friday night, Saturday night Baker defeated them 9-4, but the National came back Sunday and beat Wallowa Valley 4-2.

In the first game Monday night against Baker the Ontario Nationals squeaked by Baker 3 to 2, making the most of 4 Baker errors.

Tom Brewer opened the 2nd inning off with a single, Brandon Pratt followed with a hit. Scott Orris sacrificed to move both runners into a scoring position. Tim Cooper's fly ball scored Brewer. In the 5th inning Tim Cooper singled, Dettinger got on, on a fielder choice and Chris Weymouth singled, a back by the pitcher put them in scoring position. Bill Marcum walked to load the bases and Jud Moore went to first on an error scoring Dettinger. The final score was made when S. Orris got to first on a single. T. Cooper moved him to second on another error. Rick Dettinger walked and Bill Marcum walked forcing Orris home for the 3rd run.

Baker's scoring came in the 3rd inning when Miles walked, singles by Henderickson and Comb's advancing the runner who then scored on a pass ball. The second run came in the 6th inning as Carlson reached base on an overthrow at first, he advanced on a ground out and scored when Endicott singled him home.

The winning pitcher was Chris Weymouth with Brandon Pratt catching. Losing pitcher Miles with Barnett catching.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME Bill Marcum fired a three-hit shutout and the Ontario Nationals beat Baker 5-0 to win the district title.
