

Miss Jerri Ableman Weds Michael Cummings In Cheney

The marriage of Jerri L. Ableman to Michael D. Cummings was solemnized recently at Cheney Emmanuel Lutheran Church. Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was Pastor Philip Falk of the Reardan Lutheran Church. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Ableman of Cheney and Mr. and Mrs. W. Keith Cummings, also of Cheney. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional floor-length gown which she had fashioned of white crepe. It featured a high ruffle-trimmed neckline and empire waist. The A-line skirt and bodice were bordered with lace. Her Cathedral fan-train fell gracefully from the waistline and both it and the skirt were accented with lace rose appliques. The full bishop sleeves were gathered into deep cuffs covered with chantilly lace and edged in crepe ruffles. Her shoulder length French tulle veil was held to a triple satin bow accented with seed pearls and rose petals. She carried a cascading bouquet of white carnations, rosebuds and stephanotis interspersed with fern and centered with her going-away corsage.

FORMER NYSSANS VISIT AREA

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Roberts, nee Lynda Cundall, returned to their home in Ashland after spending one week in this area. While here they were overnight guests in the homes of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J.R. Cundall, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts. They visited Mrs. Royce Roberts, Rick and Melanie in Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Roberts, Kris and Kelly in Boise and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Sorenson, Larry and Lynn. Mike and Lynda also spent some time vacationing at Shore Lodge in McCall.

ists were Mrs. Don Ellingson and Mrs. Achilles Ballabanis accompanied by Donna Wickline.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ableman chose a pastel pink dress with an overlay of pink and white lace. Mrs. Cummings was attired in an aqua dress with a chiffon overlay. They both wore carnation corsages, complimenting their attire.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the church reception hall. The wedding cake was white with stairs leading to a pink castle at the top. A miniature bride and groom ascended the steps to the dream castle. The table centerpieces carried out the various hues of pink.

Sallee Morgan of Nyssa, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Lee (Elsie) Ableman poured the coffee and Mrs. Brad (Lorraine) Maxfield of Nyssa, served the punch. Leanne Holcomb attended the guest book and Linda Ray was in charge of the flowers. Anne Gaines, Cathy Hove and Ann Skoclich were in charge of gifts.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Emil Newman, grandparents of the bride, Ryderwood, Wash.; Jim Ableman, brother of the bride, Hawaii; Carl Barclay, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Holcomb and sons, Brad Maxfield and Tom Stringer, all of Nyssa. Other guests were from Seattle, Newport, Richland, and Yakima, Wash., and Portland.

Mike and Jerri both graduated from Cheney High School, and will attend Eastern Washington State College this fall where Mike will complete his Masters degree and Jerri her senior year.

Nick Marsh, cousin of the groom, served as best man. Jim and Scott Ableman, brothers of the bride, doubled as candlelighters and ushers, along with John Marsh, cousin of the groom. The church was decorated with large baskets of pink gladiolus and white carnations. Pink bows adorned the pews. Solo-
