

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Ruth Walker-David Saunders

A double ring ceremony united Ruth Walker and David Saunders in marriage, July 30, 1971 in the Church of the Nazarene, Nyssa. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Max Walker of Casper, Wyo., and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Saunders of Nyssa.

Twenty-eight lavender tapers, lit by Larry and Merle Saunders, brothers of the groom, accented with baskets of multi-colored flowers and multi-colored bows on the pews was the setting for the ceremony performed by Rev. Winston Ketchum, uncle of the groom, and Rev. Robert Manley.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length, white shantung dress fashioned by her mother. Featuring elbow-length sleeves accented with heavy lace and a row of tiny bridal buttons closing the v-neck in back, the train fell from a v-shaped empire line and was also trimmed in lace. The veil and headpiece were fashioned by the bride and featured three layers of different lengths, the longest falling behind the train. She carried a dozen white roses.

Wearing lavender shantung dresses of the same design, the attendants were Miss Nina Walker, sister of the bride, as maid of honor; Mrs. Bob Walker, sister-in-law of the bride; and Mrs. Vernon Pond. They carried multi-colored bouquets with lavender streamers.

The best man was Dean Seward, with Bob Walker, brother of the bride, and Dave Butler as groomsmen.

Mrs. Tom Calvin, sister of the groom, provided the organ music and Mrs. Dan Martin was vocalist.

THANK YOU!

These words of appreciation come from two Nyssa residents who thank God every day for such wonderful friends and relatives, as well as being privileged to remain in such a 'beautiful' world - pollution and all.

With the help of your prayers, floral gifts, letters, messages of cheer, visitations and other kind deeds, our recoveries have been miraculous.

A word of advice, "Use your seatbelts." Without ours, we are sure these words would never have been written.

Again "Thank you from the very depth of our hearts."

Ellen Jones Relates Trip To Chicago

Having no passenger train service is a sad situation for an area the size of Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming, and part of Nebraska. At McCook, Nebr., there is Amtrak service every other day to Chicago.

Making a choice between bus and plane service was made easier by the difference in fare. Round trip plane fare was $208 and $93.10 by bus. If time isn't a factor, a long bus trip can be a real adventure. The tinted glass windows, air-conditioning, rest room and frequent rest stops makes bus travel more comfortable.

Approximately 500 members attended the week-long Congress and Institute of IGAS in Chicago. Daily classes were from 9:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each day. A total of 23 classes and seminars in handwriting analysis were taught. The post-graduate seminars were on "Aspects of Rhythm" and "Intelligence and Personality". The importance of rhythm in everyday life and the affects of disrhythm were considered.

For the annual "Night Out", members had dinner at the beautiful Ivanhoe Restaurant and Theatre with Senator Murry Schwartz of New York as Master of Ceremonies. The Ivanhoe is housed in a "medieval castle" and we were thrilled crossing the shaking draw bridge. On the way to the theatre we strolled through the "enchanted forest". The play was "Out Cry" by Tennessee Williams. It was in the round and had only two actors: Eileen Herlie and Donald Madden.

While Oregon was having over 100 degree temperature weather, Illinois, Iowa, and Colorado were having a cool spell of low 80 degrees. It was very pleasant visiting in Clinton, Iowa with Bob and Helga Jones. I visited my cousin Irene Earl in Des Moines, my sister, Maude Matthews and sister-in-law Mollie Trimble in Longmont and Broomfield, Colo.

The trip home through the Colorado Rockies was beautiful as usual with snow at timberline. Even with the temperature of 106 degrees when I arrived in Nyssa, it is good to live in the peace and quiet of a small town.

He then filled a mission in Texas South, and is a junior at B.Y.U. in Political Science. Both plan to continue their education at B.Y.U.

Pre-marriage festivities were a open house at the groom's parents home August 14. The couple were guests of honor at a Luau in Mesa August 17. After the wedding ceremony the couple were honored with a formal banquet, concluding with a program for them.
