

Sorlien-Hammon Repeat Vows In Double-Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Karen Sue Sorlien to William Hammon was solemnized Saturday, August 14, 1971 in the Caldwell United Methodist Church at 8 p.m. Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Ron Adock.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sorlien of Caldwell, Mrs. Thelma Hammon of Ontario, and the late L. Durlin Hammon.

A tangerine and green color scheme was accentuated by large baskets of gladioli, large mint mums and painted daisies with green and tangerine streamers. The altar bouquet matched the basket flowers, as did the flowers on the tier candleabra. Pew bows were tangerine and green.

The tall white candleabras were lit by Larry and Steve Hammon, nephews of the groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown made of re-embroidered white rose lace over white satin, featuring a cowl neckline, balloon puffed sleeves gathered into a wide cuff and a chapel train. Her finger tip veil of illusion and gown were styled and made by her mother.

The bride wore a gold diamond watch, a wedding gift of the bridegroom and an 85 year old cameo locket that had belonged to her great grandmother. She carried an orchid, Zorina rose and Stephanotis bouquet, centered with a white orchid corsage.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Stan Parsons, sister of the bridegroom, wore a full length orange chiffon over orange taffeta dress, featuring full length

BUSINESS WOMEN TO HEAR SPEAKER

Minnie Jane Johnston, National Representative from Stonecroft, Missouri, an enthusiastic, original, dynamic personality will be speaker for the October 5 dinner meeting at 7:30 in Boulevard Grange Hall, speaking for Treasure Valley Christian Business and Professional Women's Council.

Barter, swap or trade, You name it! They at C.B.P.W. Council call it Country Store night when all the Town and Country folk bring succulent samples from summer gardens to tempt and tantalize the eye and dip a bit into the change purse. All guests are free to fully participate in this and the tables will be decked with these goodies in this October meeting.

Old time fiddler music will be provided by Mrs. Edna Gice and Oran Shaw.

All interested women are invited to make reservations by calling Kay Eddy at 889-5054.

puffed sleeves, gathered into a wide cuff, with wrist length gloves. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of green gladioli, mint green carnations and zorina rose.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Henry Kramer and Miss Jeanne Bean, cousin of the bride. Their gowns were identical sleeveless orange chiffon over orange taffeta. They each carried crescent bouquets of mint green carnations, green gladioli and painted daisies.

Flower girl, Teri Parsons, niece of the bridegroom wore a gown identical to the matron of honor who is her mother.

All the attendants wore headpieces of large matching orange bows with short veils.

Ring bearer, Scott Parsons, nephew of the groom carried the rings on a white lace heart shaped pillow matching the bride's dress.

Best man was Gary Lattimore, Fruitland; groomsmen were Lowell Simonson, Weiser; ushers were Rick Gasparotti, Boise; Jerry and Gary Goulding, Ontario, cousins of the groom and Dave Cook of Ontario.

Don Bates of Nyssa sang "We've Only Just Begun" and "The Lord's Prayer". Ron Palmer of Ontario was the organist.

Homelown News

Mrs. Bill Stringer and Matt, took Mark to Corvallis last week where he enrolled in Pharmacy classes at OSU. Enroute to Corvallis they visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pickthorne in Portland.

Guests at the homes of the Bill Stringers and Vaughn Stringers recently, were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bare of North Carolina. Before coming to Nyssa the Bares spent some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stringer in Spencer, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Wilson returned home Sept. 22, after visiting their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wilson and Jimmy in Alameda, Calif. They also visited Mrs. Wilson's father, V.L. Seybold in San Francisco. They returned via Klamath Falls and spent a day with another son, Gary, who was recovering from an emergency appendectomy.

The Wilsons were busy Sept. 24 moving their daughter, Cheryl, to La Grande where she is a student at Eastern Oregon College.

Linda McPartland was among the many students returning to colleges and universities last weekend.

The bride's mother wore a burnt orange ensemble with gold and rust accessories. The groom's mother wore an aqua ensemble with matching accessories. Both mothers wore golden orchid and Zorina rose corsages.

Mrs. Joy Hammon was in charge of the gifts assisted by Jan and Jeff Deringer and Roy and Ann Gasparotti. Sandy Shroll was in charge of the guest book.

The reception was held in the Viking room at McGarvin's Smorquets. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Merton Miller, great aunt of the bride, Mrs. Glen Bean, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Richard Gasparotti. The cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Bean. The top tier of their wedding cake was the top tier of the groom's grandparent's wedding cake, the late Mr. and Mrs. Amasa Hammon. They were married November 22, 1905 and it had been used on their silver and golden wedding anniversaries.

Presiding at the punch bowls were Mrs. John Deringer, Mrs. Hoyt Warwick, Mrs. Wendell Platt and Mrs. Sam Genoway. Serving the coffee were Mrs. Ray Swanson and Mrs. Dale Ashcraft.

Mrs. Hammon is a graduate of Middleton High School and Links School of Business and is presently employed at Burns Chevrolet Company in Caldwell. Hammon is a graduate of Nyssa High School and attended Oregon State University for three years and is presently employed at Genoway's Floral and Greenhouse in Payette.

Among the out of state guests were: Mrs. Merton Miller and Mrs. Bart Everman of Creston, Iowa; Mrs. Stan Parsons, Teri and Scott, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Mel Matsunaga, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lowder, aunt of the groom, Rupert; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thornton, San Diego; Mrs. Lillian Banes, Santa Clara.

The bride changed to a suit of tangerine orange double knit with white accessories for their going away trip to Las Vegas and Central Nevada.

The couple are making their home at 1137 Center Avenue in Payette.

80th Birthday Observed

Miss Eva Boydell observed her 80th birthday anniversary Wednesday September 22. She received many lovely gifts and cards and welcomed visitors during the day.

Sunday, Miss Boydell accompanied the Drick Nedrys to Boise where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Britt Nedry and Earl Nedry. Birthday cake and ice cream was served in honor of Miss Boydell's birthday and also for Earl who had a birthday September 15.

BRIDGE ACTIVITIES

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Myrick hosted the Mr. and Mrs. Bridge Club last week in their home. Mrs. Tom Eldredge and Fred Guthrie were winners.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guthrie entertained the Saturday Night Bridge Club last week in their home. Mrs. Tom Eldredge and Fred Guthrie were winners.

Baby Shower For Mrs. Larry Bauman

A baby shower was given for Mrs. Larry Bauman and her infant daughter, Sept. 23 at the home of Mrs. Larry Blackburn. Co-hostesses for the event were Mrs. Duane Buchtel and Mrs. Craig Northrup.

Games were enjoyed, each mother brought a picture of her baby and Mrs. Bauman was asked to match the baby pictures with the mothers.

Mrs. Buchtel presented a reading on raising children and Mrs. Blackburn read four poems.

Delicious strawberry pie was served the 15 guests attending.

Eastern Central Oregon Association O.E.S. held their fall meeting Sept. 19 in Ontario, with Star Chapter #69 O.E.S. hosting the meeting. It was preceded by a potluck luncheon. The meeting was opened by Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Abrams, Worthy Matron and Patron of Star Chapter #69. They introduced Mrs. Leona Miller, president of the association. The juris prudence committee reported on Grand Chapter business. Eighty-seven were in attendance from the 39 chapters in the association.

A practice was held for the reception of the Worthy Grand Matron, Virginia Wilkerson, Heppner; Past Grand Officers present; Past Grand Matrons, Hazel Foster and Marjorie Janes; Past Grand Patrons, Bill Skinner of Idaho and Chester Felt of Oregon; Worthy Grand Matron Virginia Wilkerson; and Grand Ada, Katherine Lindstrom.

The spring meeting will be held in Hermiston in May.

Golden Rule Chapter #131 O.E.S. held their first meeting September 20, with Worthy Matron Lucille Steiner and Worthy Patron Ray Bacon, presiding. Marjorie Wilson, Associate Grand Conductress held school of instruction. A potluck preceded the meeting.

Escorted and introduced were Associate Grand Conductress Marjorie Wilson of Sweet Home Chapter, Sweet Home; Stanley Edmark, member of the finance committee; Dorothy Walker, Grand Representative of Idaho in Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Abrams, Worthy Matron and Patron, Star Chapter #69; Mrs. Delores Shelton, Worthy Matron Golden Chain #103, Vale; Lucille Steiner and Ray Bacon, Worthy Matron and Patron of Golden Rule #131.

The altar was draped in memory of Josephine Rigney, Vera Olsen and Lillie Crocker, deceased members of Golden Rule Chapter #131 OES.

Mrs. Robert Wilson, her daughter Mrs. Ray (Linda) Erland and daughter Mickey took Mrs. Wilson's daughter, Marilee to college at EOC in LaGrande where Marilee will be a freshman September 22.

Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Erland and Mickey then went on to Portland to visit the Dick (Judy) Martin family, another daughter of the Wilsons. While there Mrs. Erland and Mickey were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walt Erland of Aurora, Oregon. September 26 Mrs. Wilson and her two daughters Judy and Linda and their girls were dinner guests of the Tom Holman's of Albany.

Returning home Monday Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Erland stopped in LaGrande to see Marilee. Marilee had been asked to join the singing group "Blue and Gold Singers" which are a traveling group of singers.

Mrs. Vernice Campbell of Tacoma, Wash., returned home Monday after a three weeks stay with her sister, Mrs. David Beers.

Mr. and Mrs. Beers visited their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Meril Firestone of Vancouver, Wash., and brought Mrs. Campbell back to Nyssa with them.

While in Vancouver the Beers' visited with Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Weckoff, former Nyssans.

Mark Goodell is staying with his grandmother, Mrs. Orma Cleaver while his parents are in Portland. Scott is staying at the Delbert Cleavers and doing the chores while his parents are gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ballou and Joy spent the weekend camping at Cascade Lake with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gilliam and family at the Gilliam's cabin there.

Mrs. Ed Stephens of Nyssa visited her aunt, Mrs. Frank Byers all day September 26. Mrs. Byers' son, John Sommers of Caldwell was an afternoon visitor.

Thane-Haney Marriage Vows Exchanged September 25

At a double-ring ceremony held September 25, 1971 in Bethany Lutheran Church at Port Orchard, Wash., Patricia Ann Paula Thane became the bride of Steven J. Haney.

Officiating at the 5 p.m. ceremony was the Rev. McCollough in the presence of 20 close friends and relatives.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. William Hoyt of Seattle, Roy Thane of Port Orchard, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin C. Haney of Nyssa.

The attractive bride, given in marriage by her father wore a street-length dress of white satin and nylon. The gown featured a fitted lace bodice and full sheer sleeves gathered into a small band. She carried a bridal bouquet of yellow mums and white roses.

Maid of honor was Wynette Wolfe and matron of honor was Mrs. James Brown, sister of the bride. They were gowned in street-length dresses of pink and white and carried nosegays of yellow mums.

Serving as best man was Richard Grismer.

The bride's mother Mrs. Hoyt wore a velvet dress of street-length. Mother of the groom chose a pink knit street-length dress. Their corsages were white rosebuds.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thane. A three tiered white wedding cake decorated with pink and yellow roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom, graced the reception table. Serving the cake and punch were Mrs. Richard Thane, Mrs. James Brown and Jeanie Thane.

The new Mrs. Haney was graduated from Kitsap High School in Port Orchard. Her husband is a Nyssa High School graduate and served four years with the Navy on the USS Constellation.

For going away the bride wore a blue knit dress with white trim. Following a honeymoon trip to O'Kanagan Lake in Canada the young couple are making their home in Nyssa.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thane; Mrs. William Hoyt of Seattle; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers of Tacoma.

An open house reception is being planned for the newlyweds. It will be held this Saturday October 2, from 5 to 9 p.m. at the First Christian Church in Nyssa. Hosting the affair will be Mrs. Carol Hill and Mrs. Gail Craner of Payette, both sisters of the groom.

Friends of the young couple are cordially invited to attend the reception.

WEDDING INVITATIONS

- Photo Invitations
- Thank You Notes
- Personalized Napkins
- Anniversary Announcements
- Parchment Scrolls
- Calling Cards

5 to 6 Day Service

Many kinds of type styles and a large variety of invitations to choose from

The Gate City Journal

Fall Bargains

LADIES' SHOE SPECIAL

ONE LARGE TABLE
OVER ONE HUNDRED PAIR
ASSORTED
TYPES FALL SHOES - MOST SIZES
VALUES 8.99 to 12.99

2⁹⁷

LADIES' CAR COATS

TWO STYLES - BELTED OR UNBELTED
OUTER MATERIAL 100% NYLON
LINING 100% NYLON
FILLING OLEFIN - WATER REPELLANT
SPOT RESISTANT - HAND WASHABLE
THE WET LOOK IN RED OR BLACK
SIZES S - M - L

9⁹⁷

LADIES' WATERPROOF SNOW BOOTS

SIZES 4 - 5 - 6 - 7 - 9 - 10 ONLY

3⁹⁹

MEN'S MASTER -JAC COAT

100% NYLON OUTER SHELL -
NYLON FUZZY LINING
6 SNAP FRONT OPENING -
STORM CUFF WRIST
COLORS BLUE - BROWN - GREEN
SIZES S - M - L - XL A $14.99 VALUE

9⁹⁹

BRACKEN'S DEPARTMENT STORE

IN THE HEART OF THUNDEREGG MALL
NYSSA, OREGON