

Callister Named Head Of Easter Seal Society

Hague Callister, manager of administration for Modern Machines Co., was named president of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Oregon at the society's annual meeting.

Callister, who had been 1st vice president, succeeds Robert F. Tarrant of Corvallis who remains a member of the Board. Other officers elected were Paul Duden of Portland, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Victor Atiyeh of Portland, 2nd vice president; Dan R. Dinges of the First National Bank of Oregon, treasurer; Mrs. Peter M. Walsh, secretary; Clarence R. Wicks, counselor, and Dr. Lawrence Noall of Portland, medical advisor.

Newly named to the house of delegates were Mrs. J.S. Bohannon of Tillamook; Mrs. F.L. Bristol of Grants Pass; Mrs. Ramona Hatfield of Madras; Mrs. E.L. Hunter of McMinnville; Mrs. Bruce Kerr of Salem; Mrs. Palmer Sather of Salem; Miss Peggy Cabler of Medford and Mrs. Hugh McGilvra of Forest Grove.

James M. Torson, society executive director, reported that 2,345 Oregonians, ranging in age from 2 to 106 years, were served by the society's 6 projects during the year. The greatest number, 1,193, were served through the equipment loan pool, which provides such things as wheelchairs, crutches and hydraulic lifts. A total of 600 persons received physical therapy treatments through the society's 5 mobile therapy clinics.
