

OUT OF THE PAST

10 YEARS AGO

Dr. K.A. Danford told a Journal reporter yesterday that construction of his and Dr. K.E. Kerby's new clinic building would be started in the immediate future.

Holcomb and Main were successful bidders at approximately $58,000 and the building will be ready for occupancy about May 1, 1962.

The building will be located at the northwest corner of Third Street and Good Avenue. The old frame house, known as the Crawford place and lot have been purchased. The house was sold to Bob Chatelain and was moved this week to First and Green Avenue.

Tentative plans call for Dr. David Sarazin to move from his present location in the Ray's Food Fair building into the Sarazin Clinic building being vacated by Kerby and Danford.

Electric power and telephone service were interrupted Monday for a period of a few hours in the Nyssa section along with the remainder of the Snake River Valley by an unusually severe early winter storm.

A two and one-half hour interruption of service was experienced by the Idaho Power Company on the Idaho side of the river when heavy snow and wind broke wires and shorted some of the cut-outs. A high tension wire shorted out and burned down near Mitchell Butte, the interruption put Adrian out of service and halted service to a few customers in the Mitchell Butte area for one and one-half hours.

So much of the wet snow piled up on the telephone wires that it caused them to short and ground out. The storm effected all aerial wire over the valley for a period of four to five hours.

Telephone company officials said the storm is the only type that will put a telephone plant completely out of service. During the storm trouble cannot be eliminated. The company and customers just have to wait for a change in the weather. Damage is then repaired as quickly as possible.

The Nyssa civilian defense council met Tuesday evening to perfect organization in view of the national emergency.

As a result of the meeting all citizens of Nyssa and vicinity are asked to sign up for civilian defense at the Post Office Saturday.

Louis P. Thomas of Nyssa, county vice-chairman, stated that each member of the council, which is non-partisan, has very important work to perform. Nyssa is the only city in the county that has a complete civilian defense council.

As a result of the Japanese-American war, the Japanese have released for publication in

30 YEARS CON'T

Nyssa a resolution declaring their loyalty to the United States Government.

The resolution reads as follows:

"We, the members of the Japanese Farmers Association and of the Japanese-American Citizens Club of southwestern Idaho and eastern Oregon, deeply deploring the unjustified acts of aggression on the part of the imperial government of Japan, do hereby declare our unwavering loyalty to the government of the United States of America and we declare our determination to uphold its policies."

"We appreciate the advantages we have enjoyed here and the friendship manifested toward us by the people of Malheur County, Oregon, and of southwestern Idaho, where many of us were born and others of us born across the Pacific have made our home for upward of 40 years."

"In token of our loyalty and of our appreciation of citizenship or residence we hereby tender to Malheur County defense committee, the sheriff's office, or such other governmental agency as may be designated by them, our Community Hall near Ontario, whatever use they desire to place. Due to its central location, we feel that it can during this grave emergency be thus most useful to the public."

Last week Fred Snively took a load of lumber up to his home on the river, hired a carpenter and intends building an addition to his house. Well! Well! What next?

The Gate City Journal will doubtless be rolling in wealth, as Si Bigelow renewed his subscription this week 'cause he couldn't bear to miss the Owyhee news.

Traffic this week from the west was badly tied up on account of rain and snow storms between Portland and LaGrande. There were landslides and snow slides between Hood River and The Dalles which caused several trains to be held up in that region.

will be required to support it and within a few weeks more the best bridge on Snake River will be completed.

The people of Nyssa have made a most vigorous campaign for the building of this bridge here, and regardless of the many obstacles thrown in their way, have kept continually at it till they secured what they wanted, a free bridge for the use of their Idaho patrons.

Displaying a few of the hand-made items to be available at the Mini Bazaar at the Masonic Hall Saturday, December 11 is Kathleen Wheeler, general chairman and Louise Wernick, assistant chairman.

The Bazaar, sponsored by the Stardusters OES, will be held from 11 to 5 p.m. and will feature many items including hot pads, Christmas corsages and candles, love birds, necklaces, all types of needlework, baked foods and candies.

This is the second year for the bazaar and the name "Mini Bazaar" originated when the group decided on short notice, last year, to hold a bazaar.

Free coffee and cookies will be served and the public is invited to attend.

Cheryl Adams, vice-president; Terri Anne Ulrey, secretary and reporter; Tim Tarter and Saralee Bunn, game leaders.

The meeting was adjourned and we enjoyed playing a game. —Terri Anne Ulrey, reporter
