

Observe 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Houston Wilson celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at an open house held in their home November 27. The honorees were married November 30, 1946 in Highland Park, New Jersey.

The main table was centered with a white and silver tiered wedding cake and a floral arrangement of white and silver. Champaign punch, cake and attractively displayed trays of hors d'oeuvres were served the 75 guests attending the event.

The Eagle's catered the affair, assisting were Elaine Olsen and Dick Scholes.

The couple's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Brad Maxfield of Oakridge were present for the celebration.

DAUGHTERS OF UTAH PIONEERS MEET

The Daughters of Utah Pioneers met Thursday, December 16 at the home of Mrs. S. P. Bybee for a Christmas potluck dinner. Fifteen members were present.

There was a lesson on "Earliest Christmas in Salt Lake, Year 1847" with Mrs. Howard Bair speaking. Also shown were some of the clothing worn in early days, which caused a lot of laughter.

There was a gift exchange also.

REBEKAHS MEET

The Yellow Rose Rebekah Lodge met December 14 at the IOOF Hall with Noble Grand Nellie Jenkins presiding. Fifteen members answered roll call.

Noble Grand elect Hazel Farr and Vice-Grand elect Leona Reeves gave the required memory work preceding installation.

Noble Grand Nellie Jenkins presented her officers with a lint mitt.

Hostesses for the evening were Wilma Ostrom and Alma Kingrey.

The next meeting will be held December 28 at the IOOF Hall.

GRANGE NEWS

Approximately 85 Grange members, friends, and guests were welcomed by Master Ernie Metcalf to Oregon Trail Grange hall Thursday evening, December 16, for the annual turkey dinner. The blessing was offered by Chaplain Orma Cleaver. Tables were decorated with Christmas candles, evergreens and colorful ornaments.

A Christmas tree was the center of attraction. Gifts were distributed to the children and adults participated in a "Santa Claus March" to the tune of Jingle Bells, past the gift table where each selected a gift.

Prior to the distribution of gifts, Lecturer Marguerite Moss requested Lois Boenig to lead the group in singing Christmas carols.

A reading "Christmas I Remember" was given by Mrs. James Stephen which brought back memories of many childhood Christmases. The group agreed that the present meeting had been most enjoyable.

The next regular grange meeting will be held Thursday, January 6, 8 p.m. All grangers are urged to attend.

GOLDEN AGE CLUB

The Golden Age Club held their Christmas party and dinner December 15 at the Library meeting room.

The tables were attractively decorated and Turkey with all the trimmings was served. There was a nice turn out, with games and visiting enjoyed by all.

The club wishes to thank the business men of Nyssa for making their Christmas party such a happy one by donating so many wonderful things.

Thanks to Michael's Pharmacy, The Merc, Bracken's and Wilson's Department Stores; Wilson's, Rieb's, Ray's and M & W Grocery Stores; A & W Rootbeer, Coast to Coast, Firestone and Dee-Lite Bakery.

Next meeting will be held January 5, 1972.

Hometown News

Call 372-2233

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Durham of Tuscon, arrived December 19 to spend two weeks Christmas vacation with Mrs. Ralph Alvord.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beck and Kristine of Flagstaff, Arizona and Richard Beck of BYU are home for the Christmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Beck and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Chapman of Meridian were Friday overnight guests of Mrs. Orma Cleaver and attended the Reece-Cleaver wedding.

David Danford is home from Southern Oregon College to spend the holidays with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. K. A. Danford.

Mrs. T. H. Eldredge recently visited two days with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Glen Eldredge of Boise.

The Owen Froerer family hosted a family Christmas party held at their home Monday, December 20. Guests were the Darwin Jensen family and Leroy Bair family.

The group exchanged gifts and played family games at the party.

Teresa and Mary Haburchak are home for the holidays with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Victor Haburchak from Oregon State University.

Mrs. Royce Roberts and children were Sunday dinner guests and visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Jenkins.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McGinley and family for a potluck dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hicks and family and Mr. and Mrs. Buster Talbot. The group enjoyed having a gift exchange and playing games during the evening. Mrs. Talbot was also surprised by being honored for her birthday anniversary.

Patty and Ruth Ann McGinley from OSC are home enjoying the holidays with their parents, the Harry McGinley's.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McConnell visited their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Moore in Nampa Sunday, December 19. The Moore's then took them to dinner in Boise in observance of Mrs. McConnell's birthday anniversary.

Lt. Wayne D. and Mrs. Riggs and daughter of Reece Airforce Base in Lubbock, Texas are here spending the holidays with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Riggs. Doyle Riggs, another son is home from OSU where he is going to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Russell visited their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hale of Eugene last week and Ray attended a business meeting in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sager were hosts for a pre-Christmas dinner Monday, December 20 at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Sager of Idaho Falls, Mrs. Beth Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Foster and Francis were all guests at the dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Sager will be guests of their parents until December 22.

Mark Stringer is home from OSU in Corvallis to spend the holiday's with his family the Bill Stringer's.

Mrs. Verda Steinke received a long distance call Monday evening from Mrs. M.C. Leveaux of Fallon, Nevada. Mrs. Leveaux called to say that her husband Monty is very ill and is in the Hospital at Sparks, Nevada. The Leveauxs are former residents of Apple Valley. Anyone wishing to write may do so, the address is Box 697 Fallon, Nevada, 89406.

Mrs. Howard Sirmans of North Ridge, Calif., recently visited at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Alma Kingrey.

Mrs. Kingrey visited her daughter Mrs. Lucille Stewart in Tacoma. She was accompanied by her granddaughter Mrs. Sirmans and they returned Saturday, December 11.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS ACTIVITIES

Job's Daughters of Bethel 33 met in regular session Dec. 15 with Honored Queen KayC LaFay presiding. Jobies decorated the Christmas tree at the hospital December 16.

Over sixty persons attended the Mystery Father's dinner held at the Masonic Hall Sunday December 19.

Each Jobie was the recipient of a lovely Christmas gift given her by her Mystery Father.

Each year the Jobies select a Mystery Father by drawing the name of a Mason from a hat.

Marlene Jamieson, Honored Queen elect, announced installation of officers will be Monday December 27, at the Eagles Hall at 7:30 p.m. A reception will be held at the Masonic Hall immediately following.

Kathy Kunkel was selected as Jobie of the meeting.

W.W. I Barracks Auxiliary # 352

The annual Christmas dinner and gift exchange was enjoyed by approximately 52 members and guests of World War I Barracks #352 and Auxiliary at the Vale Grange Hall December 19 in Vale. Maxine Ryan played the accordion and led the group in singing songs of long ago.

The next potluck and business meeting will be at 1:30 p.m. at the Vale Grange Hall Sunday, January 16.

Mrs. Jay Jackson and children of Hometown visited Mrs. Verda Steinke last Saturday. Mrs. Steinke used to baby sit for Mrs. Jackson.

Holiday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Linegar is Takeshige Iio of Tokyo, Japan. Takeshige is a fraternity brother of Otto Linegar and they are both students at Linfield College.

Burgundy and Pink Setting For Chapin-Nelson Wedding

Before an altar banked with candelabra and baskets of burgundy roses of pink gladiolus and a matching centerpiece, Cindy Chapin and Dan Nelson repeated their wedding vows, November 27, 1971 in a double-ring ceremony held at the First Church of the Nazarene, Ontario, Oregon.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapin of rural Nyssa. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nelson of Ontario. The Rev. Pete Caruana of the Lutheran Church officiated at the ceremony.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father was attired in an empire floor-length dress of white velvet and crepe trimmed with Venetian lace and seed pearls featuring long puffed sleeves of velvet. She wore a head-piece of Venetian lace with an elbow length veil trimmed with seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet was of cascading pink, burgundy and white roses with white mother of pearl leaves and pink, white and burgundy ribbon.

Mrs. Don Barbee was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Fred S. Schilling, Annette Chapin, the bride's sister; and Nancy Nelson, the groom's sister. They all wore matching floor-length dresses with pink crepe bodices with long sleeves and skirts of burgundy velvet. Each carried a long stemmed burgundy rose with pink velvet ribbon streamers. Flower girls were Tammy and Tila Wright, cousins of the bride and dresses were duplicates of the bridesmaids. Best man was Nick Gaviola and groomsmen were Dan Chapin, the bride's brother; Lee Sipes; and Norm Nelson, the bridegroom's brother. They wore tuxedos with black trousers and burgundy colored jackets with pink ruffled shirts.

Candle lighters were Jim Thomas and Pat Corn. Preceding the wedding ceremony the groom sang "Theme From Love Story" to the bride. Ringbearer was David Bowers, cousin of the bride.

Jan Phifer, cousin of the bride sang "Wedding Prayer" at the beginning of the wedding ceremony and later sang "Walk hand in Hand". She was accompanied by Mrs. Jim Phifer, aunt of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of silver with burgundy accessories. The groom's mother wore a street-length dress of burgundy with black accessories. Both wore corsages of burgundy roses with pink ribbon and netting.

The reception was held in the church reception hall immediately following the ceremony. The reception table was covered with white lace over pink and was graced by a silver candelabra with pink candles on each side of the wedding cake. Mrs. Tom Crow, the bride's aunt assisted by Mrs. Norman Nelson and Christy Shenk served the four-tiered cake trimmed with pick sugar roses, bells, lillies of the valley and swans. The bases of the tiers were outlined with fresh flowers of burgundy roses and pink baby mums and carnations. Lea Phifer, cousin of the bride poured punch from the punch bowl and Mrs. Rusty Talbot poured the coffee. Mrs. Joe Nelson, the groom's aunt, Mrs. B. B. Burroughs, Mrs. Blanch Stenson, the groom's aunt, also assisted with the reception.

Cheryl Burroughs was in charge of the guestbook. Those helping with the gifts were Shirley Phifer, Renee Hardman, Debbie Nelson, Vickie Nelson and Kathy Salomon.

The young couple were honored to have nine of their grandparents present at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Nelson; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kingery, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Chapin and Mrs. Harriet Turner. Out of town guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Pete Caruana; and son of Chehalis, Washington; who were friends of the bride's parents when Charles served in the Air Force; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kingery and Mrs. Blanch Stenson, of Kimball, South Dakota; Mr. and Mrs. Don Barbee; Mrs. Gordon Collins, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wright, bride's aunt of Boise; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nelson and Debbie, Seattle, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Phifer, Lea and Shirley and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Crow of Madras; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Timson, Meridian; Mr. and Mrs. George Sams, Greenleaf; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ruton; and Ralph Fuson of Nampa; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Held and Mrs. Edgar Nelson of Caldwell; and William Hart of Yakima, Wash.

The bride chose an empire dress of burgundy velvet with pink velvet ribbon for her travel costume. After a skiing trip in Utah the young couple are now at home at 31 Valley Lane in Ontario.

Cindy attended Adrian High School and Links School of Business in Boise and is now employed as a secretary at Treasure Valley College. Dan graduated from Adrian High School and is managing the Dan Nelson Service in Ontario.

Merry Christmas

IN SEASONAL HARMONY, WE WISH THE HAPPIEST OF HOLIDAYS.

Owyhee Barber Shop

GREETINGS

May Christmas shower its many joys on you and your loved ones and fill your hearts with deep contentment.

Stunz Lumber Co.

Season's Greetings

MAY YOU RECEIVE A BOUNTIFUL SHARE OF THE BLESSINGS OF CHRISTMAS.

Pioneer Federal Savings & Loan Association

ONTARIO . . . OREGON

MERRY CHRISTMAS

'Tis the season to be jolly, and to wish you and your family a Yuletide filled with every happiness.

Johannesen-Adams Motors, Inc.

Hi! MERRY CHRISTMAS

May your Day be an especially joyous one... filled with holiday happiness and good cheer.

Bass Union 76 Service

Merry Christmas

Here's to you, our good friends and patrons... our sincere appreciation for the privilege of serving you and best wishes for a happy holiday season.

Adrian Oil Company