Emergency loans for graduates of Nyssa Public Schools who are continuing their education beyond high school in an accredited institution are available through the Frank Parr Student Loan Fund. This fund was created under the direction of the Nyssa Education Association at the time of Frank Parr's death as a memorial to him. Funds have been donated by members of the family, community, Nyssa Education Association, and Nyssa PTA organizations throughout the past year and have accumulated to the point where loans will now be available.

Loans will be granted for emergency expenses and will be repayable usually within one year at 3% simple annual interest.

Nyssa graduates interested in applying for loans or more information may contact Gary Thompson at Nyssa High School by mail or phone.

Only two of Oregon's 36 counties--Sherman and Wheeler--completed 1971 without recording a single traffic death, according to tentative figures released by the Oregon Motor Vehicles Division.

Eighteen of the counties recorded fewer traffic deaths than in 1970, one recorded the same number, and 17 others had higher death tolls.

The agency said fewer deaths were reported in Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Coos, Curry, Hood River, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Lane, Linn, Multnomah, Sherman, Tillamook, Umatilla, Washington, Wheeler and Yamhill counties.

Lane county, with 43 deaths recorded its lowest death toll since 1962 when 30 deaths were reported. That figure is 20 below 1970.

Counties which recorded increases last year were Baker, Benton, Curry, Deschutes, Douglas, Gilliam, Grant, Harney, Jackson, Jefferson, Lincoln, Malheur, Marion, Morrow, Polk, Union and Wasco. Malheur County listed 18 deaths in 1971, compared to 16 in 1970.
