Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Bob McKinney and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burningham, all of Nyssa.

A reception honoring the couple was held December 19 at the Nyssa Ward Cultural Hall, which was attractively decorated with tall beauty baskets of burgandy mums with pink satin Christmas balls and tied with large burgandy and pink bows.

The attractive bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white velvet, fashioned with a high neckline, long sleeves gathered into cuffs and a softly gathered skirt. The fitted bodice was complimented with an embroidered floral lace yoke. Her cathedral length veil was edged in matching lace and was held in place by a lace tiara. She carried a cascading bouquet of burgandy roses and pink carnations, interspersed with matching ribbon and streamers.

Maid of honor was Miss June Macke, former roommate at OSU. Bridesmaid was Mrs. Del (Christine) Moody, sister of the groom. Both attendants wore matching gowns of floor-length chiffon over delustered satin. Ruffles accented cuffs of the long full sleeves and a deep ruffle bordered the skirts. The gowns featured burgandy velvet bolero vests. They wore matching headpieces of net held in place with burgandy satin bows, and each carried nosegays of burgandy roses and pink carnations.

Best man was Rod Bushman of Grass Valley, California, friend of the groom. Ushering the guests was Chipper Burningham, brother of the groom.

For the reception, the bride's mother chose a coattress of gold brocade, while the bridegroom's mother wore a pink antique satin suit. Their corsages were pink rosebuds.

The bride's table was centered by a beautiful four-tiered white wedding cake, decorated with pink and burgandy roses, graceful swans, and topped with two large white satin bells and a heart of netting and seed pearls. Placed on one side of the cake was a candelabra with

SENIOR CITIZEN ACTIVITIES

On surrendering the gavel to the new president, Mrs. Long made a brief summary of the seven years activities since she organized the group in the Council Room of the city hall with the full cooperation of the Mayor and Gate City Journal. She noted the many deaths that had depleted their ranks. Also, those who had moved to other towns but always new members come to fill these vacancies.

Mrs. Long touched on the abiding friendships made possible through the association in the group. Citing one of them being between Mr. Foster and Mr. Runcorn. All would long remember their daily walks together. Two, the very meaningful comfort given when trouble became the portion of a member.

"But," said Mrs. Long, "Our organization stands for more than personal gains. We have entertained the Nyssa Nursing Home several times, made visitations to shut-ins, fed and clothed needy here and in other localities. These things we shall continue doing."

Following the dinner Frances Foster showed colored slides of life in Pakistan, accompanied by her graphic description of that country. She wore their full costume, rich in color and texture, and embossed in gold. Her slippers were sparkling with what appeared to be jewels. All were very lovely.

All over the United States similar Senior Citizen Organizations have become a way of life. The Nyssa Senior Citizens are a part of this great movement. Any interested person in this age group are welcome to join.

LORENSENS TRAVEL OVER 6000 MILES

By Martha Lorensen
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lorensen and daughters Harriet and Gloria returned home January 3 from a ten day holiday vacation trip which covered over 6,000 miles.

Leaving early Dec. 24 by plane from Boise, they spent two days at the home of the Donald L. Parkers at Capitola, Calif. Leaving the 26th from San Francisco, they went to El Paso, Texas. They drove a Hertz car to Las Cruces Mission Inn in New Mexico where they had reservations for four days. They attended a family reunion of the Hinkson families. While there they toured in Mexico and visited interesting points of the Las Cruces area. Of special interest to the family was a huge chicken farm of very modern facilities, unlike anything ever seen before by them. December 29 found them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McKeag as dinner guests. The families who attended the reunions said their goodbyes and left for their homes which covered all states.

Driving back to El Paso, Dec. 30 they boarded the plane for New Orleans, La., touring there the rest of the day. They drove across the 24 mile Ponchartrain Causeway and spent the night at Covington, La., where a real Southern dinner was served. The next day they made the Gray Line tour. That evening they drove to a small town inland, Roseland, where they joined Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Chapin and Mrs. Harriet Turner who had spent Christmas with Mrs. Lois Adams, James Steele and Mrs. Bernice Steele, who are aunts of Wilbur Chapin and Mrs. Lorensen. All had New Year's dinner together at their aunts home and spent the rest of the time visiting childhood friends and haunts.

Much travel was done in the mobile unit driven by Chapin, as it was large enough to accommodate all including friends, gathered along the way. The group went to church where the Chapins had attended when children. Mrs. Turner had not been back for many years and enjoyed being a part of us in all the trips.

The Lorensens' left Roseland January 3 returning to New Orleans by way of Baton Rouge where they visited the Capital City. They left New Orleans by plane and arrived in Boise four hours late due to area storms. "It was hard to believe that we were in Boise, time went so fast." Thanks to the Iseri Travel Agency for the complete arrangement of the trip. Reservations were made in November and the plans were carried out to the smallest detail.
