State Sen. Don Willner Announces For Senate

State Senator Don Willner announced at news conferences in Portland and Eugene Monday (Jan. 3) that he will run for the United States Senate seat now held by Republican Mark Hatfield.

"I believe the people of Oregon want a new United States Senator who will care about the problems of this state," he told newsmen.

"They also want a candidate who is young enough to have many years in the Senate ahead of him, enough years to build up the influence and seniority crucial to getting things done for Oregon," Willner, 45 added.

"A Democrat who has served six sessions in the Oregon Senate, Willner said he has faced many of the same issues that a United States Senator faces.

"As a candidate I will continue to speak out against concentrations of economic power and work for fairness and justice in the marketplace and better representation for the consumer viewpoint," he said.

Former Senator Maurine Neuberger and Labor Commissioner Norman O. Nilsen are co-chairmen of Willner's campaign.

"Democrats tell me they want a new candidate to take on Senator Hatfield, someone who can heal the wounds of the past, get one who will stir up old animosities," Willner said.

"I'm not running against Democrats," he replied to a question regarding former Senator Wayne Morse's candidacy for the same seat.

Willner blasted Hatfield for "missing almost one in four key Senate roll calls because he's travelling about the country earning $42,000 a year as a paid lecturer in addition to his Senate salary of $42,500."

Well known as a conservationist spokesman, Willner said that as a Senator he would work for an Oregon "with clear mountain streams and forests full of game and an economy which will allow Oregonians to have jobs and payrolls so they can afford to enjoy the outdoors."

Willner, 45, is a Portland attorney who has served six sessions in the Oregon Senate. He is also president of the Consumer Federation of America. He is married to the former Patricia Durand and has four children.

GRANGE NEWS

Members of Oregon Trail Grange met in regular session Thursday evening, January 6, with Master Ernie Metcalf presiding. Officers were seated by Assistant Stewards Mr. and Mrs. Don Somers.

Plans for the annual pancake supper to be held at the Grange Hall Saturday, January 22, were discussed. Sour dough hot cakes, sausage and eggs will be on the menu again this year and the public is invited.

Legislative Chairman Frank Sherwood spoke on the new criminal code. Grange Insurance Agent Wilbur Atherton gave information about the modified No Fault Insurance Plan.

During the Lecturer's program, The Reverend Don Crego told of his trip to New York City to attend the National Seminar on Africa. He described the regions of Southern Africa and the Republic of South Africa and the great contrasts within the land of hot and humid rain forests, the wide expanse of grass land and the vast deserts. Among the highlights of the trip was a visit to the United Nations where he listened to speeches in several different languages. Another interesting event which he described was attendance at an off Broadway play, "The Black Terror" with the actors and audience in such close proximity that the audience felt they were actually intermingled.

Visitors were Mrs. Wilbur Atherton and Miss Mary Omberg.

Refreshments were served to 28 members and guests by Eric Boenig and Loyd Adams couples.

The next regular meeting will be an open meeting Thursday, January 20, honoring Deryl Leggett's F. F. A. Public Speaking Class. A pot luck dinner will begin at 7 p.m. with the speech contest to follow.

All grange members and friends are urged to attend.

CWA Activites

Members of the CWA of Oregon Trail Grange met Tuesday, January 4, at the home of Mrs. George Cleaver.

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman Mrs. Frank Holub.

The Secretary reported that the Year Books were ready for printing and the job was turned over to Mrs. Ernie Metcalf. The book will contain a list of members on various committees. Names of those who are to serve refreshments at grange meetings and club meetings are listed under monthly headings. Members are urged to consult their books and if changes are necessary to get in touch with Chairman Holub.

Plans for making a rug to place before the Overseer's station were discussed and Lois Boenig volunteered to get the necessary information. Several members indicated interest in making a quilt to be entered in the County Fair.

Refreshments were served by Co-hostess Mrs. Wyatt Smith to 17 members.

The next club meeting will be held Tuesday, February 1, at Oregon Trail Hall at 2 p.m. A Valentine program is being planned and there will be a 50¢ gift exchange. Marguerite Moss and Polly Holub are hostesses for the day and all grange women are invited to attend and bring a guest.

Annual Bull Sale
Slated For Feb. 26

Consignments are complete for the graded bull sale held annually by the Eastern Oregon Hereford Breeder's Association, according to George Bain, Association secretary.

There will be 74 bulls this year, Bain says. All consignors have been at the sale before except two guest consignors this year. They are Alvin Hadley of Montour, Idaho and Kenneth Queen of Ontario.

We expect an excellent set of bulls this year, according to Eldon Ross, Association president.

The bulls will be checked for soundness by a veterinarian and graded by a committee of well qualified graders, Ross says. Graders this year will be Wade Wells, Extension Livestock Science Specialist from the University of Idaho, Tom Pence, Payette County cattleman, and Bill Ross, breeder and commercial cattleman from Jordan Valley.

ETIQUETTE BETWEEN HUSBANDS AND WIVES.

Let the rebuke be preceded by a kiss.

Do not require a request to be repeated.

Never should both be angry at the same time.

Never neglect the other, for all the world besides.

Let each strive to always accommodate the other.

Bestow your warmest sympathies in each other's trials. Make your criticism in the most loving manner possible.

Never make a remark calculated to bring ridicule upon the other.

Never deceive. Confidence, once lost, can never be wholly regained.

Let each study what pleasure can be bestowed upon the other during the day.

Always leave home with a tender goodby and loving words, they may be the last.

Consult and advise together in problems about the family.

Never reproach the other for an error which was done with a good motive, and the best judgment at the time.

Sen. Muskie Speaker At Jefferson Jackson Banquet

Senator Edmund S. Muskie of Maine has accepted an invitation to be featured speaker at the 1972 Jefferson-Jackson Banquet in Boise on February 19.

According to Idaho Democratic Chairman Joe McCarter who made the announcement, the Banquet will be held at the Roweway Inn in Boise beginning at 8:00 p.m.

Muskie announced his candidacy for the Presidency last week. He is currently serving his third term in the Senate. In 1968 he was the Democratic nominee for Vice President on a ticket which lost by only 1/2 % of the vote.

Muskie was born in Rumford, Maine, March 28, 1914. Following graduation from college, he served in World War II as an officer aboard a Navy destroyer escort. He was elected to the Maine legislature in 1946 and in 1954 became the first Democratic Governor of Maine in twenty years. He was elected to the Senate in 1958 following two terms as Governor.

Long recognized as a leader in the fight for clean air and water, Muskie is Chairman of the Senate Subcommittee on Air and Water Pollution. In this position he has written most of the key environmental legislation of the last decade. He also serves on the Foreign Relations, Public Works and Government Operations Committees and Special Committee on Aging.

Muskie's appearance, which had originally been scheduled for January, will be his second appearance at a Jefferson-Jackson Banquet in Idaho. He also appeared here in 1970.

General Chairman for the event is Carl Burke of Boise. Tickets will be $25 for general admission and $5 for students.
