GRANGE NEWS

Members of the FFA public speaking class and their parents and friends were welcomed to Oregon Trail Grange by Overseer Harold Kurtz, Thursday evening, January 20.

Four students were entered in the contest under the direction of their instructor Deryl Leggett. The boys drew numbers for place in speaking and Bill Holmes drew first place. His speech was entitled "Where's Taxes At?" Brent Richieson was the second speaker and his topic was "The Heart-beat of America." "Farmers in Today's World" was the subject chosen by Bob Holmes. The last speaker was Fred Child. His speech was entitled "It Couldn't Be My Fault" and concerned pollution.

David Robbins and David Bench acted as timers. Each boy was allowed from six to eight minutes for the speech and five minutes for answering questions following the speech.

The judges were Bob Ure, the Reverend Manley, and Fred Schilling. Schilling commented that the judges had a difficult time in selecting the winner due to the excellence of each speaker. Bob Holmes was first place winner and he will represent this area at the District Contest.

Oregon Trail Grange awards a plaque to the area winner. Other awards for district and state winner are given by Oregon State Grange.

Deryl Leggett spoke briefly on BUILDING OUR AMERICAN COMMUNITY and TEENS AGAINST POLIO programs.

A pot luck dinner was served prior to the meeting and dessert, coffee, and punch following the speeches.

The next regular grange meeting will be held Thursday, February 3, 8 p.m.

Members of the CWA Club are reminded of the Valentine exchange party to be held Tuesday, February 1 at the Grange hall, beginning at 2 p.m.

All members are urged to attend and bring a friend.

Triple Orange Salad makes a hit with young and old alike. It's nutritious and oh, so good. It has "go power" when making it for the grandchildren I usually don't use the topping but if it's "for special", believe me I do.

TRIPLE ORANGE SALAD
1 - 11 oz. can mandarin oranges drained
1 - 6 oz. can orange juice concentrate
3/4 cup boiling water
1 pkg. orange flavored gelatin
Dissolve orange gelatin in boiling water. Cool. Stir in orange juice concentrate and mandarin oranges. Pour into mold and place in refrigerator until set. Topping: 1 - 3 oz. pkg. cream cheese, 1/4 cup milk, salad dressing. Mix topping to spreading consistency and serve over Orange Salad if desired.

Whenever I visit my daughter's family Patio Biscuits always play a leading roll. They're one of the quickest, tastiest biscuits I've eaten. You'd swear the cook had spent hours "over a hot stove." Any bride could make them and make a hit with her mother-in-law on her first visit.

PATIO BISCUIT RING
1/2 cup butter, melted
1 tbs. sesame seed
1/2 tsp. garlic powder
2 pkg. refrigerated biscuits
In a small saucepan, melt butter, add sesame and garlic. Separate biscuits, dip each into butter mixture, turning to coat entire piece. Place each on edge in a round jello mold. Sprinkle with sesame seeds. Bake in moderate oven for 25 minutes at 350 degrees or till golden brown. Serves 8.
