

Girl Scout Annual Cookie Sale Format Changes To Feb. Orders

Tanya Atagi, Mary Escobedo and Donna Oldemeyer of Junior Troop #683 are displaying cookies that they and other members of the Girl Scouts of the Silver Sage Council will be selling throughout the city.

When the Girl Scouts come to your doorstep early in February to take your order for cookies, don't think you have misplaced an entire month.

Although they don't usually come around until March, it is a different story this year, so the Girl Scouts would like for you to be aware of it so they can make sure to visit all of you.

The girls of the Silver Sage Council are working on the "advance" sale. This means that from February 1 through February 18, they will come to you to get your order.

After the orders have been collected by Mrs. Don Oldemeyer, Nyssa cookie chairman, the entire order will be sent to the cookie company. At the end of March the cookies will be delivered to you by the same girl who took your order in February.

If a Girl Scout does not call on you, please call Mrs. Dan Oldemeyer at 372-3593 and she will arrange for your order.

With the exception of the creme sandwich which is a standard item with the Girl Scouts, the other cookies are new this year: Dutch Dainties, a shortbread of different design; a chocolate confection, and an oatmeal creme.

Profits of the cookies sales are used to maintain the Scout resident Camp Alice Pittenger at McCall, Tendency at Pocatello, TA-MAN-WIS Camp at Irwin; Pine Creek at Salmon and troop camp sites at Baker and Lake Creek in Oregon, Boise Ridge, Camp Wilson and Pocatello Creek in Idaho.

Equipment for day, troop and resident camps is purchased and operation expenses involved in the general scouting program are also supported by the cookie sale.
