

Pink and White Decorates Hardman-Pratt Ceremonies

Lorna Rae Hardman of Adrian became the bride of Mark Gregory Pratt of Nyssa, during a 1 p.m. ceremony performed December 27, 1971 at St. Bridget's Catholic Church in Nyssa. The double-ring rites were solemnized by Fr. Robert Simard, in a setting of potted daisy mums and pink carnations with matching flowers in the altar arrangement.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Eastman of Homedale, Idaho and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pratt of Route 1, Nyssa.

Given in marriage by her step-father, James Eastman, the bride wore an empire styled gown of satin and lace ribbing, designed with a Victorian inspired neckline, featuring full puffed sleeves gathered into deep cuffs with self covered buttons. A headpiece of white sequins held her chapel length veil of lace and she carried a bouquet of daisy mums and white carnations centered with pink roses.

Maid of honor was Teresa Lane. Bridesmaids were Sheila Pratt, sister of the groom and Mrs. Billy Brewer, sister of the bride. They were attired in identical gowns of floor-length pink crepe, fashioned in empire style. Their bouquets were pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Lori Harlow was flower girl, she wore a short empire styled dress of pink crepe and carried a basket of pink rosebuds, white carnations and daisy mums.

Best man for his brother was Eugene Pratt, Jr. Ushers were Mike Duncan and Rod Price. Singing was provided by a sextette including Dick Cameron, Mike Condra, Mary Looney, Vicky Nelson, Roberta Asumendi and Rosemary Waite. They were accompanied by Mrs. Veri Bishop and Shana Munn.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Eastman chose a blue dress of street-length. The bridegroom's mother was also attired in a street-length dress of blue. Each wore a corsage of pink rosebuds accented with white ribbon.

A reception honoring the couple was held in the social hall of the church. The bride's table was highlighted by a three tiered white wedding cake with pink rosebud accents and topped by a miniature bride and groom standing under an archway.

Serving the cake were Mmes. Eugene Pratt, Jr. and John Kirby. Pouring coffee was Mrs. James Harlow and Miss
