Ore-Ida Judo Tourney Set For Week-end

The West coast's largest judo tournament gets underway in Ontario this weekend. Action starts at 11 Saturday morning, February 19.

The annual event has grown to draw about 300 judo players, coaches, friends and relatives into Ontario. Approximately 75 or 80 trophies will be given to outstanding participants from all over the Northwest.

Players hail from 22 clubs in (2) Seattle, Spokane, Richland, Yakima, Moses Lake, and Bellingham, Wash.; Oregon State University, Eastern Oregon College, University of Oregon, and Portland, Oregon; Boise Capitol, and Boise Valley, Twin Falls, Idaho Falls, Idaho; two in Salt Lake City, and one each in Ogden, Corrinne and Hot Springs, Utah.

Ontario's Ore-Ida Judo Club was organized in 1949 or '50 by Frank Uriu and Sam Muramoto, both now deceased. Each May, the end of the Judo season, an award is given within the Ore-Ida club to the Best Judoist of the Year and an Inspiration Award in memory of the club's founders.

Hank Ogawa, one of the club's 15 or so instructors, took half a dozen of its earliest members in 1952 to their first tournament at Marin Junior College near San Francisco.

The club sent letters to other judo organizations around the Northwest asking permission to attend their tournaments.

Because Ontario is in the center of the Northwest and tourney participants arrive here from all points, other clubs enjoy coming to Ontario because of the tremendous level and amount of competition.

Five clubs were represented at Ore-Ida's first tourney in 1951. They were from Seattle, Portland, Salt Lake and Boise Valley.

The Ore-Ida club maintains an annual average of about 100 members, certainly the largest club in the Northwest and Intermountain Area.

BULLDOGS ON THE GO

By Veda Estrada

NYSSA HIGH SCHOOL

Tonia Simpson was crowned "Miss Pep" during halftime for NHS's basketball homecoming dance, entitled "Reason to Believe" Feb. 5, when Nyssa met with Crook County on the Nyssa floor.

Accompanied by her princesses and their fathers, Tonia was crowned by Dan Nichols, basketball captain. Greg Blanch presented a rose to the royal court comprised of Pam Stephens, junior; Lynn Ashby, sophomore; and Anna Dority, freshman. Elected by the Pep Club, the list of candidates was narrowed down to one by the NHS grapplers and cagers.

"Purple Image" a group from Idaho Falls provided the music. During intermission Pam Sken sang the theme song "Reason to Believe" and "Bless the Beasts and the Children". Ron Schoen also entertained the audience with his original song, entitled "My Song".

He's got charm, He's got grace, And a smile on his face. Water chestnuts, refried beans And Chinese noodles in gobs and oodles. Are his favorite foods. When asked what he does with spare time, He said, "Travel. And riding my bicycle around in the gravel."

This lad is NHS's choice for Athletic Sweetheart of 1971-72. Scott was chosen by the students of Nyssa High School, Feb. 1, by ballot out of approximately 23 other boys.

Twenty-six members of the NHS's German Club journeyed to the snow covered ski slopes of Hitt Mountain near Cambridge Jan. 29. Since skiing is the favorite winter sport in Germany, the club enriched their knowledge of German culture as well as having a good time. Those who knew how to ski were able to enjoy skiing, others learned to ski, while the rest just chose tubing down the hills.

In a repeat of last year's match when the NHS bulldogs team thrashed the touted "Animals" of Ontario by a 30-17 score, the Bulldogs did it again Tuesday night, Feb. 8 in the Ontario gym before a packed house and a score of 32-27.

As in the match last year the victory gave the Bulldogs the

Treasure Valley "A" League Wrestling Championship

Nyssa took second place in the Crook County Invitational. Nyssa grapplers tangled with the Vale Vikings, Feb. 10 on the Vale mats, Nyssa left them very much defeated with a score of 40-16. This leaves Nyssa with a 17-2 overall.

Jeff Marquez, a sophomore came off the bench during the fourth quarter to lead Nyssa to a 42-34 SRV win over Bishop Kelly, Feb. 11. Jeff scoring 10 points, scored the most points for the Nyssa team.

The following night Nyssa stomped the Emmett Huskies 67-51. Our top scoring players were Dan Nichols with 17 points and Jeff Marquez with 16 points.

Congratulations to both the wrestlers and basketball players Nyssa now has a 9-0 SRV record and 12-2 overall.

Nyssa Beats

Payette 77-70

The Nyssa Bulldogs continued their winning streak Tuesday evening, winning their 10th straight in SRV competition with a high-scoring 77-70 victory over Payette. Their overall season record is now 13-2.

The Bulldogs showed a balanced attack with four men in double figures, led by sophomore Jeff Marquez with 16 points, and followed closely by Greg Blanch and Ron Moffis with 14 each, and Rod Lewis with 13. Daryl Daniel led all scorers with 28 points as the Payette ace continued to scorch the hoops.

Nyssa led all the way, 17-15 after one quarter, 41-33 at half-time, and 62-51 going into the final quarter.

Both teams were minus one of their leading scorers for the game. Nyssa 6-6 center Dan Nichols was sidelined with the flu, and Garry Seaward of Payette was out with injuries.

Nyssa goes on the road this week-end, meeting John Day Friday night and Burns Saturday.

In the preliminary game the Nyssa JV's lost to the Payette JV team by a 56-55 score after two overtime sessions. Phillip Klinkenberg was high for Nyssa with 14 points.
