

Bruce Campbell and Bride Honeymoon at Mt. Ski Resort

Beauty baskets of hot pink daisies and blue cornflowers, tied with large bows and streamers, and hot pink pew bows decorated the First United Methodist Church in Auburn, Washington for the February 5 wedding uniting Lynne Dee Fitzsimmons and Bruce Eugene Campbell. The Rev. Wesley Arms of Auburn, officiated at the 2 p.m. double-ring ceremony in the presence of 350 guests.

Darrel Sharrard provided the organ music and during the ceremony played the "Hawaiian Wedding Song" on the chimes.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lyle Fitzsimmons of Auburn. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Campbell of Route 1, Nyssa.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents and escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, wore an old-fashioned styled gown of lace over bridal satin. The gown featured a high neckline with ruffle, long lace sleeves and five tiers of lace forming a full hoop skirt and train. Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from a crown of white daisies. She carried a cascading bouquet of hot pink daisies and blue cornflowers with ribbon streamers.

The maid of honor Rona Barquist, friend of the bride, wore an empire styled gown of hot pink. The floor-length gown was fashioned with long sleeves gathered into cuffs, and an apron of coordinating print edged with a white ruffle, attached to waist front.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Marquez, cousin of the groom, Lynn Aus, and Joyce Bruns, cousin of the bride. Their gowns were styled identical to that of the maid of honor but were print, with aprons of hot pink. The attendants wore satin ribbons in their hair and carried white baskets of hot pink daisies and blue cornflowers.

Johnnie Davis, friend of the groom, served as bestman. Ushering the guests were Eldon Slippy, Steve Kreigh and John Marquez.

The mother of the bride chose a dress of silver lame and wore a corsage of hot pink roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a dress of black and white and her corsage was of white roses accented with red ribbons.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the church social hall. The beautiful four-tiered white wedding cake was trimmed with fresh daisies and cornflowers and a large bouquet of hot pink daisies, roses and blue cornflowers adorned the top. Mrs. Eldon Slippy and Mrs. Ronnie McCain, both sisters of the groom; and Mrs. Jim Baxter, cousin of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Henry Ferwerda and Mrs. M.H. Fitzsimmons poured coffee and Mrs. Roy Bruns, aunt of the bride, served punch.

Nancy Campbell registered the guests and Connie Campbell, was in charge of the gifts. They are sisters of the groom.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to Crystal Mountain Ski Resort in Washington, the new Mrs. Campbell wore a red suit and white accessories. The bride is a 1971 graduate of Auburn High School. Her husband was graduated from Adrian High School in 1968 and is self employed in farming. The newlyweds are at home at Route 1, Nyssa.

Those attending the wedding in Auburn including the groom's family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Campbell, Nancy and Connie; were Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Slippy and Lee of LaGrande; Mrs. Ronnie McCain and Jason, Ontario; Mrs. Dick Kreigh, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Tallman and family, Adrian; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Muffitt, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Muffitt and Miss Rene Collins, The Dalles.

Mrs. Woody Seuell Now At Home

Mrs. Woody (Bernice) Seuell returned home Thursday, February 23 from a Boise hospital where she recently underwent surgery. Monday her two daughters Mrs. Dan (Peggy) Sweet and Frances Seuell and Peggy's daughter Carrie arrived to help care for their mother.

Frances left Friday for her home in Seaside where she teaches.

Mrs. Sweet plans on returning to her home in Lebanon this weekend.

Visitors who called on Mrs. Seuell Friday were Mrs. John Piene and Mrs. Ernest Seuell. Mrs. Jess Asumendi visited Sunday afternoon. Also calling was Mrs. Seuell's mother, Mrs. Edith Whipple and a cousin, Mary Corfield and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gahan.

Capt. R. Davidson Slated Speaker At Dinner Meet

John Palmer, weather permitting, will fly his private plane to Boise Saturday morning to meet Captain Ramon Davidson, who is flying in from Denver to be the guest speaker for the dinner meeting that night at the Christian Business and Professional Women's Council's Men's Night, at Boulevard Grange Hall.

Captain Davidson will be staying in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pheral Dodson. He plans to return to Denver the next day.

Fahrenbruchs Visit Chili

Mr. and Mrs. John Fahrenbruch returned from a trip that began December 8 and took them 730 miles south of Santiago, Chile. Ateach stopover several days were spent in order to explore the city and countryside by bus and train. After visiting their son Alan at Menlo Park in California they flew from San Francisco to Mazatlan, Mexico. Other stops were made at Mexico City, San Jose, Costa Rica, Panama City, Bogota, Columbia, Lima, Peru, and Santiago. From there they took a train and bus trip southward through Valdivia to Puerto Montt and from Santiago to Vina Del Mar on the west coast of Chile. On their return trip from Santiago their stopovers were Quito, Ecuador; Mexico City, Guadalajara, and Puerto Vallarta in Mexico. The Fahrenbruchs visited her sister in the Los Angeles area and their son at Menlo Park on their return trip.

They arrived in Boise February 13, after seeing a lot of magnificent scenery, customs of living much different from our own, and in most Latin American countries, a vast gulf between the rich and poor.

PIANO STUDENTS ENTERTAIN MOMS

The piano students of Mrs. Elvin Ballou presented a "Play Day" for their mothers, Monday, February 28 at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Ballou.

Each student played a memorized song. Those participating were: Shelley Munn, Shelley Myrick, Kaylene Robbins, Jolene Atagi, Mark and Sidney Ballantyne, Barbara Holmes, Rosemary and Lupe Orosco, and Joy Ballou.

Refreshments were served following the program.

FRANCES FOSTER RETURNS HOME

Frances Foster just returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Foster of Nyssa. She has been gone since January traveling as far east as Minnesota giving lectures and showing slides at each stopping point.

Miss Foster attended the World Evangelism Conference in San Diego and the United Pentecostal School of Mission in Houston, Texas. Traveling by bus she visited friends and relatives along her route. She visited the headquarters of her Missionary Sponsor in LaRae, Kansas. In Kansas City she visited Dr. and Mrs. Albert Harper who at one time was the Dean of the College of the Nazarenes in our area and may be remembered by many.

Miss Foster visited her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Torgerson in Fox Home, Minnesota. From there she traveled home via Denver and Boulder City, Colorado.

Since her return home, Miss Foster has spoken and showed her slides of Pakistan to the Payette Kiwanis Tuesday, February 29. She will be in this area for approximately a month if any group, club or organization would like to have Miss Foster lecture, she may be contacted at her parents home.

BEA'S BEAUTY BAR

IN ADRIAN

We have remodeled our present building and moved up front.

Easter Special
Permanent
With Conditioner
12⁰⁰

Bea, Owner & Operator — Bonnie, Operator
372-2653

Hometown News

Call 372-2233

Noon dinner guests of Mrs. Orma Cleaver Thursday, February 24 were Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Estrick and Michael of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Chapman of Meridian; Mr. and Mrs. Alva Goodell, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Cleaver, Mr. and Mrs. Brian Cleaver, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Cleaver, Gary and Don Cleaver and Bill Bishop.

All day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Beck were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beck and Shirlene of Burley, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Callahan of St. George, Utah were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Butcher while in this area to attend their father's funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wickham of Boise and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wiley of Caldwell were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Clapp and Neta Mae Wiley and children.

Victor Haburchak, S. J. son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Haburchak, Sr., left for Zambia, Africa February 16. Enroute he stopped first in London, England for five days. While there he saw Mr. and Mrs. Tim McGinnis who live in London. Tim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen McGinnis. Tim gave Victor the Grand Tour of London. From there Haburchak went to Geneva, Switzerland and spent four days also attending the Conference of World Council of Churches. He is now in Rome visiting and sight seeing.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Myrick and Shelly visited over the weekend with the Myrick's son Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Myrick and family in Pendleton.

Mrs. Chuck Corak and daughter of Halfway spent Friday through Sunday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Reece and family while her husband, Chuck was in Corvallis with his team at the State Wrestling Tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Manning of Notus were Sunday dinner guests of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Riggs.

The Lester Oden's brother-in-law, John Low of Quincy, Washington was a guest in the Oden's home last week.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of J. Dick Draper were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Blackburn and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Northrup attended the TVCC play "Fiddler on the Roof" in Ontario last Saturday.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Goudon Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Craig Northrup. The couples played bridge following dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Wilson drove to Baker Sunday to see their daughter Cheryl bowl on the EOC Bowling Team. Four college teams, two girls' and two boys' bowled against the townspeople of Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilson spent February 18 to 22 in Portland. They visited their daughter Stephanie, a student at University of Oregon Nursing School and a son Paul, a student at University of Oregon Medical School. The family attended a professional basketball game, Portland Trail Blazers vs. Los Angeles Lakers, at the Coliseum.

Paul hosted a dinner-party for his parents, Stephanie entertained them at a Brunch, and they all enjoyed dining in some of Portland's fine restaurants.

Houseguests of Mrs. Tom Johnson February 22-29 was her daughter Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Graham of Quincy, Washington. A granddaughter Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hall of Ogden, were guests February 25-29.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lauritsen of Kent, Washington visited Friday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McConnell.

Sunday afternoon visitors at the Sam McConnell home was their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Moore of Nampa.

Mrs. Darel Steink of Vale visited at the home of Mrs. Blanche Weeks last Saturday.

Mrs. Weeks and Mrs. E. K. Burton were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chapel in Ontario.

Blanche Weeks and Mrs. E. K. Burton were February 29 dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Plais Johnson and family in Parma.

The group went to dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sweeney in Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Keck of Nu Acres visited at the home of Mrs. A. H. Keck Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Bays of Parma entertained Dr. and Mrs. K. E. Kerby for dinner at the Elks Lodge Saturday evening. The occasion being in honor of Mrs. Kerby's birthday anniversary.

SENIOR CITIZEN ACTIVITIES

Senior Citizens met in the social room of the United Methodist Church Wednesday, February 23, in an all day session, with the new president Mrs. Alice Lanig presiding. Plans were made for the coming rummage sale and entertainment of the Ontario Senior Citizens in April. Also, a May Day party for the residents in the Nyssa Nursing Home is planned.

Special appreciation was extended those contributing to the success of the Valentine party, given at the Nursing home in February.

Wilson's Grocery Store donated ice cream, the Star Dusters OES made table favors, and Mrs. Lucinda Daniels and Enga Buckley furnished cakes.

The serving committee was Lucinda Daniels, Enga Buckley, Amanda Shuster, Alice Lanig and Bessie Long.

The next meeting will be Wednesday March 8.

PINOCHLE PARTY

Mrs. Orma Cleaver hosted the Wednesday Pinochle club last week at her home. Guest player was Mrs. Vernon Tobler.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Tobler, high; Mrs. Wyatt Smith, low; Mrs. Helmer Ostrom and Mrs. Fred Guthrie, traveling.

Toastmistress Club

Students from the Parma High School speech class were guest speakers at the bi-monthly meeting of Treasure Valley Toastmistress Club Thursday, February 24 at the Library meeting room. Tammie Colburn, Mike Gooding, Ken Flowers and Steve Scott gave five to seven minute speeches, and were from the Speech Class of Chuck Kingston.

Other guests were Kathy Shell and Miriam Kunkle of the Nyssa High School, Mrs. Fred Koch and Mrs. Kingston. Mrs. Margaret Gough acted as Toastmistress.

Job's Daughters of Bethel #33 catered the dessert and coffee.

Interested women are invited to visit and take membership in Toastmistress which is an exciting self-improvement course.

ARCADIA

BY AVO MOELLER

PHONE 372-2733

ARCADIA — Ruth Taylor who has been visiting her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Houston the past six weeks, left Saturday night for her home in Huron, South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Parley Feik were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Everiton in Nampa.

The Jack Schenk sale was well attended February 23, regardless of the bad weather. The Arcadia Club served lunch. The club also served lunch March 1 at the Charles Taylor sale near Arcadia School.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bullard visited Robert Long Saturday, February 28 in the Nyssa hospital. Mr. Long is recovering from a heart attack.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Dejmaj from Cairo visited recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Meyer. The Dejmajs have returned recently from South America where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Rayes Dejmaj who are with the Peace Corps there.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Petterson and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Edmonson attended the play, "Fiddler on the Roof" by TVCC, Saturday night in Ontario.

Mrs. Vard Olsen and Mr. and Mrs. Brig Olsen talked to Major Vard Olsen recently by Ham Radio. Major Olsen is stationed in Thailand.

The Arcadia club will meet March 10 at the home of Amy Stradley.

Mr. and Mrs. C.R. Kesler left February 24 for Provo, Utah and Salt Lake where they will visit friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Brig Olsen hosted a pot luck dinner Feb. 23 at their home for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schenk, twenty-five friends attended. The Schenks have been residents of Arcadia for over 30 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Bullard and family spent the weekend in Boise. Don played in the Idaho State Bowling Tournament. They spent Saturday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Boyack in Meridian, and visited Mr. and Mrs. Marion Jensen in Boise.

CLUB NEWS

COMANCHERO CLUB
The Nyssa 4-H Comanchero Horse Club will meet (today) Thursday, March 2 at the Oregon Trail Grange Hall at 7:30 p.m.

All interested please come and bring a parent if possible.

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR

Golden Rule Chapter #131 met February 21 at the Masonic Hall with Worthy Matron Lucille Steiner presiding.

Invitations were received from Rainbow Chapter #80, Nampa; Hermosa Chapter #32 Caldwell; Mount Olive Chapter #52, Parma, for visits of Worthy Grand Matron of Idaho, Laura Callander.

Louise Wernick reported on the visit to Star Chapter #69, Ontario.

Under good of the order Master Masons were honored with an addendum, with Mae Schireman, Conductress, Associate Conductress, Star Points, Associate Matron and Worthy Matron taking part. At the end of the addendum, the guests were crowned King for the evening.

After closing, a cake walk was held for the Estrat Benefit Fund, under the direction of Kay Wheeler, Amalia Pratt and Nora Graham.

Hostesses for the evening were Ida Miner and Kay Brendle. The next meeting March 6, will be friendship night.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Glen W. Peterson of Nyssa, announce the engagement of their daughter, DeeAnn to Evan T. Weeks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Weeks of Parma, Idaho.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Nyssa High School, class of '71 and is presently attending Ricks College in Rexburg, Idaho.

Evan, is a graduate of Parma High School, class of '67 and has filled a Mission to Brazil for the L.D.S. Church. He is presently employed at the Safeco Insurance Company in Parma.

A summer wedding in the L.D.S. Temple at Idaho Falls is being planned by the young couple.

REBEKAHS MEET

The Yellow Rose Rebekah Lodge met February 22 at the IOOF Hall with Vice Grand Leona Reeves presiding. Fourteen members answered roll call.

The group discussed a coffee hour to be held at a later date, to help the Assembly President's project.

A card party was held February 26 at the home of Leona Reeves with proceeds to go to the Heart Fund.

Hostesses were Alma Kingrey and Wilma Ostrom.

The next meeting will be held March 14 at the IOOF Hall.

BRIDGE ACTIVITIES

Dr. and Mrs. J.R. Cundall hosted the Couple's Bridge Club Sunday evening. Three tables were in play and guest players were Mr. and Mrs. Dirick Nedry. Charles Newbill was high score winner.

The Couple's Bridge Club comprised of the Bob Wilson's, Jim Grunke's, Bill Morrison's and Wilton Jackson's used their winnings to attend the Boise Little Theatre production, "Forty Carats" in Boise Sunday, February 13. They enjoyed dinner before the play at the Steak Barn.

This Sunday the Jim Grunke's hosted the Couple's Bridge club. Winners were Bob Wilson and Judy Grunke.

WEDDING INVITATIONS

- Photo Invitations
- Mormon Temple Designs
- Thank You Notes
- Personalized Napkins
- Anniversary Announcements
- Parchment Scrolls
- Calling Cards

5 to 6 Day Service

Many kinds of type styles and a large variety of invitations to choose from

Nyssa Gate City Journal

MANY THANKS

For Your Patronage
As We Observe Our First

ANNIVERSARY

In Nyssa

ZIMMERMAN PLUMBING & HEATING

Authorized Lennox Dealer

13 N. 2ND ST.

PHONE 372-3911

Nyssa, Oregon