"Rodeo Man of the Year"

Cotton Rosser, "trail boss" for the Grants Pass Rodeo there April 28-30, is "Rodeo Man of the Year."

Rosser, operations manager for Golden State Rodeo Co., received that honor from the International Rodeo Management association of rodeo sponsors.

Rosser said feature acts at the Grants Pass Rodeo will include the renowned trick-riding team, "The Warrell Family," and veteran rodeo clowns Quail Dobbs, John Taylor and Dave Rutherford.

Bob Chambers of Pendleton, "voice of the Pendleton Round-up," will announce the three day rodeo.

In addition to more than $6,500 in prize money, Rosser said contestants will have an eye on the $15,000 Olympia-Golden State Rodeo Awards, sponsored by Olympia Brewing Co.

JUNIOR SHOOTERS COMPETE IN BOISE

Sunday, April 16 the Ontario Junior Shooters traveled to Boise to compete in the National Rifle Sectional Match held there. The competition was stiff with shooters from Twin Falls to Walla Walla in attendance.

Larry Zink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee J. Zink of Nyssa won sixth place overall trophy in the junior competition and tied for second place in the kneeling and sitting matches.

Larry's team mate, John Gunn of Ontario won first high overall Sub-Jr. title. Another team mate, Debbie Smith of Ontario won second high junior girl.

Evelyn Bailey of Nyssa and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bailey also competed. There were eleven from the Ontario Club competing.

Nyssa Boys At Judo Tournery

Nyssa boys representing the Ore-Ida Judo Club of Ontario were among the many participants at the invitational Judo Tournament at Twin Falls Saturday, April 15.

Winners were Colin Takatori, 1st place in the 12-year old middleweight division.

Kirt Michael, 2nd place in the 12-year old middleweight division.

Phillip Keveren (Vale), 1st place in the 10-year old heavy-weight division.

The 10-year old Ore-Ida No. 1 five-man team won first place with Sherman Takatori team captain and Phillip Keveren a member.

Tom Okai was a member of the Ore-Ida No. 1 five-man intermediate team, and they took second place in the tournament.

The reasons for such levy are: School District No. 61 has no tax base, this levying of tax is needed to operate the school.

Capital Win Streak Ends

Nyssa pushed across a run in the bottom of the eighth inning to score a 9-8 non-conference baseball victory over Capital Monday afternoon and snap the Eagles win streak at 11.

Dwight Calhoun slammed a three-run home run for Nyssa in the first inning to lead the Bulldogs hitting attack. Capital, 12-2 on the year, outhit Nyssa 10-5.

In the Bulldogs' half of the eighth, Greg Michaels reached first on an error followed by John Bernal's single. Dean Sappe loaded the bases on another error before Capital pitcher Will Overgaard picked off Michaels and Bernal.

Overgaard, however, proceeded to give up three straight bases on balls to Jerry Wilson, Bob Lewis and Ron Moffis to force Sappe home with the winning run.

Or, how Chef Helmut Jacobs makes Creamy Clam Chowder

Helmut Jacobs, executive chef at the Thunderbird Motor Inn, Portland, is a master chef of many talents. He has cooked his way through Switzerland, Germany, England, Scotland, France and Portugal. But, of all the recipes he concocts he is especially fond of this American Creamy Clam Chowder. Maybe that's because he loves milk, butter and cream.
