

High School Boys Work On New Home

John Marquez, Eloy Diaz, and their instructor, Bill Hood, are shown working on the new home of Rev. David Martinez on North 7th Street.

Malheur County and the State of Oregon are making a concerted effort to give a well-rounded vocational program in the schools. Intitled the Career Education Program, it is an effort to acquaint students with a variety of jobs and skills.

Nyssa High School has established a building trades class under the sponsorship of Malheur Intermediate Education District. Bill Hood, local instructor, serves in Vale in the morning and Nyssa afternoons. He has twelve boys in his class, and they have worked on various projects. Rev. Martinez volunteered to let the boys work on his house, and they spend about 15 hours a week doing supervised work. Hood says they are doing a fine job.

"Mafia" Golfers Honor Stenkamps

A group of golfers that call themselves "The Mafia Golfers," and their wives, met at the home of the Houston Wilsons for a steak and lobster barbecue Saturday evening, May 20.

The occasion was in honor of the Tom Stenkamps who will be moving to Prineville where he has been transferred as bank manager.

During the evening Tom was presented a "Loggers Putting Club," and each member received a Mafia membership card. A baby shower honoring Mrs. Stenkamp, for the new arrival expected in the near future, was also given.

Members and wives attending the event were Messrs. and Mmes. Houston Wilson, Tom Stenkamp, Arleigh Adams, Fred Bracken, Wilton Jackson, Bob Wilson, Don Young and Don Moss.

Vale Hosts Oregon High School Rodeo May 28, 29

Thrill-packed action begins this Sunday evening as youth from throughout Oregon compete in an Oregon High School Rodeo at Vale. Sponsored by the Vale Rodeo Board, the competition will feature 182 contestants in ten events.

Times for the two day show are 7:30 p.m. Sunday and 1:30 p.m. Monday (Memorial Day). Those competing will be traveling to Vale from Oregon cities as far away as Clatskanie and Coos Bay. Included among the contestants are members of last year's Oregon High School Rodeo team which took top honors at the National Finals: Shannon Maddox, Redmond, second in breakaway roping; Jill Rugg, Heppner, sixth in breakaway roping; Sandy Capehart, Princeville, fifth in barrel racing and pole bending; Mike Martilla, Coos Bay, tenth in roping; Bruce McKay, St. Paul, who scored 12th in bull riding.

Rene Collins, OHSRA Queen from Jordan Valley, will reign over the rodeo to be held at Vale's Shamrock Arena. Miss Collins won the second runner-up honors at National.

Competitive events include saddle bronc and bareback riding, bull dogging, calf roping and team roping for the boys, and for the girls such special events as breakaway roping, barrel racing, goat tying and pole bending. Contestants, who have entered the rodeo from as far away as Coos Bay and Klamath Falls, will vie for points and prizes.

One of two Oregon District High School rodeos, winners will compete in the state finals at Burns in June with winners there scheduled for national competition.

This is the second preliminary High School Rodeo of the year, and teams from Vale, Nyssa and Ontario will again be trying for top honors. Among these young people are: Vale - Linda Turner, Bill Cummings, Gayle Hawkins, Sue Olson, Lori Frisby, and Robin Ross; Nyssa - Fred Child, Frank Rodriguez, Dennis Chamberlain, and Eve-

The Nyssa team will leave for Eugene Thursday accompanied by coaches, Glenn Walker and Gerald Talbot.

Outstanding Senior Athlete

Ron Moffis is shown with the Calvin Wilson, Jr. Memorial Trophy, presented to him by the Nyssa Volunteer Fire Department for being the outstanding senior athlete. The award was given by W. O. Hipp, a member of the department, at the annual Awards Assembly at the high school last week.

DAY CAMP FOR GIRL SCOUTS STARTS, MAY 31

Mrs. Sue Rose, day camp director, announces that Day Camp for all registered Girl Scouts will be held May 31, June 1, 2, and 3. There will be a registration fee of $4 and this should be paid to troop leaders or Mrs. Rose, by the end of the week.

Mrs. Rose promises this to be a fun experience for the girls as well as teaching them outdoor skills for future camping.

The camps will be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Catholic Church, North Park and Stallion Hill. An overnight campout is scheduled for Friday night, camp will end by noon Saturday.

Among the many things offered will be arts and crafts, hiking, outdoor cooking and making homemade ice cream. Mothers are needed to help and could enjoy these experiences with their daughters.

The first day the girls are asked to bring a sack lunch, wear comfortable clothing and sturdy shoes.

Anyone wishing to volunteer their help or for information may call Mrs. Rose at 372-3022.

"O.K. - NOW LET'S SEE WHAT YOU CAN DO!"
