40 YEARS AGO

A log cabin with a past is falling to pieces on the K.S. and D. ranch near Nyssa. It was there that a career was begun, old timers say. It was there that Mary Roberts Rinehart wrote her first story "Desert Wheat", about 25 years ago. At the time she was a guest of the late and wealthy Adolph Schrieber, who entertained many notables at his beautiful ranch home.

Then the K.S. and D. was one of the largest and richest ranches in this section. It was one vast wheat field. After the first irrigation canal was built through this section, the K.S. and D. was divided into smaller units and more intensive farming began. However the tumble down log cabin and the spacious ranch house at the K.S. and D. are reminders of more glamorous days.
