Local Students To Attend BSC
Fifteen partial tuition fee scholarships have been awarded to incoming freshmen at Boise State College. The announcement was made by G.M. Don Miller, director of the Vocational-Technical Division. In announcing the awards Miller said, "Thanks to an exceptionally fine effort by students, staff and various community support on this year's Hobo March, these scholarships are made available." The Hobo March is an annual event in which students "panhandle" on the streets of Boise to raise monies for the scholarship fund. This year's march gained $4,495. Local students to receive the awards are Nancy Bratton, Nyssa, entering fashion merchandising; and Gregory Topliff, Adrian, in auto body.
