

Youths Attend Caravan Fair

The Nazarene Pathfinders and Trailblazers participated in the annual Caravan Fair at the Northwest Nazarene College Campus, Nampa, the last of May. There was district competition in the area of projects, demonstrations, talent, track, field, sewing, and Pinewood Derby Races. The Nyssa group earned a nice share of the awards and ribbons.

A beautiful trophy was awarded to Daryl South for top craftsmanship on his pinewood derby car. In the Junior High division of the pinewood derby races, Charles Pickett won first, Sherri Fitzsimmons second, and Mike Sweeney placed third. For the 4th and 6th grade girls, Sharon Pickett won second place and Jimmy Wilson won third for the boys.

Leah Condon won two grand prize ribbons for the vocal and piano competition in the 4th grade division. Tina Saldona won a grand prize for modeling the play suit she made. Others winners in track and field events were as follows: Barbara Harris, 1st, 100 yd. dash, 4th grade; Cyndi Morrison, 3rd, sack race, 6th grade; Daryl South, 2nd, football throw, 5th grade; Jeff Moffis, 2nd, high jump, 6th grade; Jimmy Wilson 1st in football throw and 2nd, softball throw, 6th grade. During the Grand Finale, Nyssa had three of the 26 earning the top Caravan award. Taking part in the impressive ceremony and earning the Esther Carson Winans Award were Sherri Fitzsimmons and Sally Locaey. Charles Pickett received the Phineas Bessie Award. Other Caravan children attending the full day event were, Jean Looney, Whitney Morrison, Sheryl South, Tim Tarter, Kevin Moffis, Terrell Moffis and Gary South.

The adults attending were Mrs. Bill Morrison, Mrs. Kenneth Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Dean South, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Looney, and the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Manley. Guides for these children were Mr. Kenneth Saunders and Mr. Mrs. Don Wilson.
