

New Dawn To Present "Christ in Concert"

The NEW DAWN, a four member musical group from Kirkland, Washington, will be featured in concert at the Assembly of God in Nyssa on June 15, 1972 at 8:00 p.m. The group is traveling as a part of the annual "CHRIST IN CONCERT" series sponsored by Northwest College of the Assemblies of God, located in Kirkland, Washington. Their musical presentation is quite varied, according to the Rev. Carl Johnson, Jr., and is designed to appeal to the tastes of both young and old. It centers around the approach of young people to the contemporary problems of life in today's world. The group has been featured in schools, auditoriums, and churches throughout the West. The public is invited to attend this presentation. There is no admission charge.

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR

Golden Rule Chapter #131 met at the Masonic Hall, June 5, with Worthy Matron Lucille Steiner presiding. Report of the Eastern Central Oregon Association meeting was given by Louise Wernick. Twenty-five members attended the meeting at Hermiston May 21. New officers of the Stardusters for the coming year were named with Nora Graham, president; Amelia Pratt, secretary; Vera Paulus, treasurer; and Louise Wernick, publicity. Edna Brown was installing marshal and Mae Shireman installing officer. This ceremony was written by Mae Shireman. As each officer was installed she was presented lovely roses. Worthy Matron Lucille Steiner expressed her thanks to the members for being Worthy Matron this past year. This being her last meeting she was given a rising vote of thanks for the well planned and enjoyable year. This was birthday month and each guest was presented with a pin appropriate to their birthday. Amelia Pratt then greeted all with lovely verses.

Installation of new officers will be held, June 26 at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Hall. Practice will be 2 p.m. Sunday, June 25. There will be no Stardusters meetings during the summer until fall.

Amity Women Meet

The Amity Club met June 8 at the home of Mrs. Mei Beck. Helen Peterson was relieved as president.

New officers for the coming year are Iona Flinder, president; Kerma Olsen, first vice-president; Ida Moncur, second vice-president; and Helen Peterson, reporter.

Toastmistress Club

Treasure Valley Toastmistress Club held annual installation in the form of a potluck dinner meeting at the Nyssa Library Meeting Room, Thursday evening, May 8. Husbands of the members were guests. The theme for table topics was hunting. Alice Yensen was the table topics mistress.

Installing officer, Ona Tuning, gave the duties of office to the following new officers: President Mary Greenway, Vice-president Adriana Kunkel, Secretary Jan Shell, Treasurer Jody Iaderosa, and Club Representatives Margaret Gough and Marian Pharris. Jan Shell was presented the past-president's pin.

The toastmistress for the evening, Jody Iaderosa, introduced Jeanne Coles of Stratford, New Zealand, a member of the Treasure Valley's sister club, who gave a talk on how her club handled its charter night banquet.

GRANGE NEWS

Members of the CWA of Oregon Trail Grange met Tuesday afternoon, June 6, at the home of Mrs. Eric Boenig for the last meeting of the season. "Pet Peeves" was the subject for roll call. Everyone seemed to have at least two. Entries in the pillow slip contest were made ready to be entered at State Grange this week by Mrs. James Stephen who is a delegate from Oregon Trail Grange.

Refreshments were served by co-hostess Mrs. Orland Cheldelin to 11 members. The next regular meeting will be held Tuesday, 2 p.m., October 3 at the home of Mrs. E. B. Metcalf with Mrs. Harold Sisson as co-hostess. All grange women are welcome.
